MONTREAL CAPTURES FIRST GAME OF CUP SERIES FROM LEAFS

Dave Trotter Drives In Winning Goal After Five Minutes of Overtime to Give Maroons Great 3-2 Victory in Opener of Stanley Cup Play-Offs—Penalties Are Scarce

MAPLE LEAF GARDENS, TORONTO, April 4 (CP).—Montreal Maroons, thumping the foe with steaming body checks in the most respected red team tradition, roared past Toronto Maple Leafs with a 3-2 overtime triumph here tonight in the first game of the Stanley Cup series and established themselves favorites over the National Hockey League champions.

Like the Maroon powerhouse in the days of Nels Stewart, Babe Siebert and Dunc Munro, crushing every attack with driving body blows, Tommy Gorman's brigade battered the Leafs as they have seldom been battered on home ice and then clearly outpointed them in a brief overtime period.

NETS WINNING GOAL

On the best play in the rugged battle, Earl Robinson and Dave Trotter combined to punch in the winning goal five minutes and twenty-eight seconds after the overtime period started. It climaxed an alert, relentless attack that seemed destined to beat the Leafs without much delay.

Robinson, snapping up a loose puck a few feet outside the Toronto blue line, crossed into Leaf territory and snapped a brisk forward pass to Trotter. The puck passed between King Clancy and Red Horner on the Toronto defence.

Inside, with no one in his way, Trotter skated a few strides and whipped a shot into the lower corner of the cage. George Hainsworth had no chance on Trotter's sizzler. Starting two-to-one favorites to

SAYS COUGARS GREAT MENACE

Hunter Has Harrowing Experience in Snow-Bound Jordan Meadows

So plentiful are the cougars in the interior of Vancouver Island that, unless the Provincial Government raises the bounty on the big cats or sends hunters after them, the other animals will soon disappear. James A. Dougan, young hunter of Cobble Hill, declared during the recounting of his harrowing experience of being caught last week in a heavy snowfall in Jordan Meadows and of suffering for days from hunger and cold.

Mr. Dougan went into the meadows by way of Cobble Hill on March 31 and in a few days was trapped by the snow. After several days of misery, he encountered a female cougar with a cub and managed to kill both, only after a terrific fight in which his dog was badly hurt.

FRESH COUGAR TRACKS

While endeavoring to plough his way out of the snow country and carrying his dog, cougar skins and rifle, the hunter came across fresh cougar tracks. Although sick with hunger, Mr. Dougan took up the trail of the cat and after many hours caught up to the animal and treed it. During the trek he lost all his ammunition with the exception of one 22 calibre cartridge in his rifle. As he took aim at the cougar Mr. Dougan fully realized his plight would be an enviable one if his lone bullet failed to kill the cougar, he said. However, he had the good fortune to bag it.

Back at Cobble Hill, Mr. Dougan immediately placed his dog under medical care and was assured no serious complications would result from his injuries. Although he has no intention of giving up hunting, Mr. Dougan has little desire to invade Jordan Meadows for a while.

OPPOSE TRANSFER TO SOUTH AFRICA

Bechuanaland Chief Says Natives Wish to Remain Under Rule of British Government

CAPETOWN, April 4 (CP).—A strong plea that natives of Bechuanaland be allowed to remain under rule of the British Government, instead of being transferred to the Union of South Africa, was issued today by Chief Isheked, whose suspension after flogging a white man eighteen months ago raised world-wide attention.

Isheked, whose reinstatement followed an appeal to the King, contended that the record of the Union Government in its dealings with natives under its rule disproved its claim that natives of the remaining protectorates would benefit by incorporation into the union.

PLENTY PUT IN ENVELOPE

Executives of American Industry Still Draw Some Nice Fat Salaries

WASHINGTON, April 4 (AP).—A cool $10,000,000 was disclosed today to have been tucked in the pay envelopes of 600 executives of American industry in 1934—encompassing salaries ranging from a few thousand to a $125,000 top.

The average of these salaries, reported to the securities and exchange commission in connection with application for permanent listing of securities on stock exchanges, was $16,000.

The salary reports to date cover executives ranging from chairmen of boards to assistant secretaries.

A FAIR AVERAGE

The average for 119 presidents of companies in this group was about $26,000, but some thirty of them received more than $50,000 and four were paid $100,000 or more. Total salaries for these upper crust 119 in 1934 aggregated $4,360,000.

Tops went to Francis B. Davis, chairman of the United States Rubber Company, who got $125,000. Edward G. Seibert, president of Standard Oil Company of Indiana, came second with $117,900; Francis H. Brownell, chairman of American Smelting and Refining Company, and George Horace Lorimer, editor of The Saturday Evening Post, tied for third place with an even $100,000.

ASK GIFT FOR STANLEY PARK

Mainland Parks Board Seeks $50,000 in Federal Grant To Extend Work

Vancouver knows what it wants, and goes after it. Mainland officials were on the doorstep of the Provincial Government yesterday in connection with permanent forest improvement at Stanley Park, where $50,000 is desired from the Federal authorities to add to $20,000 voted by the Province and $5,000 put up by the city itself.

R. Rowe Holland, chairman of the Vancouver Parks Board, and W. S. Rawlings, parks superintendent, formed a delegation of two that waited upon Hon. G. M. Weir, with the request that the Province join the board in a united appeal to Ottawa for the extra money.

JOIN IN APPEAL

Mr. Holland stated later the Province will join the board in the appeal, and a letter will go forward to Ottawa immediately conveying a request for a Dominion grant of $50,000 for use as outlined.

If the money is forthcoming, it is planned to use relief labor, and to put Stanley Park trees in a permanently safe condition against future storms. A portion of the money would be used to improve fire trails, and cut bush back from the roadside to avert fire hazard from public use of the park.

Fruit Growers To Continue Control Plan

VERNON, April 4 (CP).—By a vote of 1,472 to 55, fruitgrowers in the jurisdiction of the British Columbia Tree-Fruit Board have voted for continuation of the marketing control scheme sanctioned by the Dominion Marketing Board last September and under which the past season's crop has been regulated.

Announcement of the result of the poll conducted by mail was made from Kelowna, after the ballots had been counted under the direction of Returning Officer John Young.

TWO DIE WHEN RESCUE TRIED

Mob of Jobless Starts Riot—Sheriff and Miner Are Killed

GALLUP, N.M., April 4 (AP).—The slaying of a sheriff and a miner in furious rioting by more than 300 unemployed, bent on liberating a woman and two jobless men under arrest, brought sweeping police measures in this coal centre tonight with the seizure of thirty suspects and the mobilizing of 125 armed deputies.

In hospitals were seven wounded, one of these also a woman, and among the suspects were ten women. The bloody clash during the morning came suddenly after a court hearing for the trio of unemployed under arrest, who were accused of forcibly occupying a dwelling from which one of their number had been evicted. The city was outwardly quiet as darkness fell and the community authorities appeared to have the situation in hand.

Deputy Minister of Finance Submits Proposal to Committee at Ottawa

FEDERAL TREASURY TO BE CONTRIBUTOR

OTTAWA, April 4 (CP).—A far-reaching scheme to start housing-building activity and thereby absorb many of the unemployed in Canada was laid before the Commons committee on housing today by Dr. W. C. Clark, deputy Minister of Finance. It provided for a national housing board, with headquarters in Ottawa, and local housing boards throughout the country.

By the proposals which the deputy minister submitted, a $50,000,000 building scheme could be started, he said, with the contribution of $10,000,000 from the Federal Treasury. The Dominion would provide a part of what is termed the junior money for the building campaign.

HIGHLIGHTS OF MEETING

This scheme and the announcement of the mortgage companies that they had more than $25,000,000 they were anxious to get out on the new construction in Canada, were highlights of today's meeting of the committee. Representatives of the mortgage companies gave a review of the loaning situation throughout Canada. They had withdrawn from

WILL DISSOLVE AUTOMATICALLY

Life of Parliament Must End by August 18, House Is Told

OTTAWA, April 4 (CP).—The present House of Commons will dissolve automatically on August 18, it was intimated in the House of Commons today by Minister of Justice Hugh Guthrie. The day will be five years from the return of the writs for the 1936 election.

A series of questions dealing with the duration of Parliament were submitted two or three days ago by Liberal Leader Mackenzie King. Answering questions from Liberal Leader Mackenzie King, he promised more precise information tomorrow. The date of the adjournment would depend on the progress of business, he added.

Bank Interest Is Reduced to B.C. Treasury

BRITISH Columbia will receive the benefit of a reduction of bank interest from 4.50 per cent to 4.25 per cent on Provincial borrowings, as a result of negotiations completed with the bank yesterday by Hon. John Hart, Minister of Finance. The reduction of one-quarter of 1 per cent in bank interest will mean a considerable saving to the Treasury on outstanding Treasury bills, Mr. Hart said.

OTTAWA MAY DISAPPROVE

Not Favorably Impressed by Plans for Fraser River Toll Bridge

NEW WESTMINSTER, April 4 (CP).—Federal Department of Public Works' officials are not favorably impressed by the plans for the $4,000,000 high level toll bridge across the Fraser River, sponsored by the British Columbia Government, Mayor F. J. Hume told the City Council at a special meeting today.

Mayor Hume, who arrived home yesterday from the mayors' conference, interviewed Hon. H. A. Stewart, Minister of Public Works, the chief Federal engineer and other officials while in the East.

HAS FINAL SAY

Under the Navigable Waters Protection Act, the Dominion Government has the final say regarding any bridge over any navigable waterway. "The minister does not favor the arguments that the bridge would not be a menace to navigation, would provide much employment during construction and adequately take care of highway traffic," the mayor said.

WINS $100,000 FOR HEART BALM

Author Ordered to Pay Record Sum for Chicago—Senator Would Ban Such Suits

CHICAGO, April 4 (AP).—Fresh efforts to outlaw alienation of affections suits were launched today as Mrs. Helen Bedford-Jones was awarded the record sum of $100,000 as the cash equivalent of her fiction-writing husband's stolen love.

Shortly after an all-male Federal Court jury established a new Chicago high by voting the plaintiff half the $200,000 balm she asked, a Wisconsin State Senator proposed a bill not only to ban love theft suits from the court, but to slap $1,000 to $5,000 fine and prison terms on anyone threatening to sue for heart balm.

Relief Camp Strike Across Dominion Is Given Poor Support

Efforts to Persuade Men to Leave Quarters Prove Unsuccessful With Condition Quiet in Most Parts—B.C. Chief Section Affected

PLANS for a general walkout of Canada's relief-camp "army" apparently faded out with only sporadic response as the April 4 deadline was reached and passed. In British Columbia, a Royal Commission investigating conditions in the camps held its first public sitting, it was estimated possibly 1,100 of the 8,000 men engaged on Department of National Defence relief projects left their jobs.

The "strike-call" originated in the Pacific Coast province, where officials of the Relief Camp Workers' Union some days ago denied Hon. Grose Stirling's statement in the House of Commons that the plans had been laid to wreck the camps April 4, but said the men would walk out that day. The strike was planned as a protest against what its leaders termed unsatisfactory conditions.

ALL QUIET ON PRAIRIES Across the Prairie and in the East, however, there was evidently no reaction at all to the call. Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta reported "all quiet." Five hundred men in the Citadel Hill Camp at Halifax

Four Heavily-Armed Men Systematically Rob Two Score Persons and Escape With $843—Shots Fired Into Ceiling of Each Coach to Terrify Victims

Chicago Man Is Shot in Hip While Offering Resistance

KANKAKEE, Ill., April 4 (AP).—Four gunmen, each armed with two .45 calibre pistols, took command of four coaches of a southbound Illinois Central passenger train tonight, robbed nearly two score of persons of at least $843, and escaped after shooting one man.

In their flight from Kankakee the gunmen kidnapped Edward Goetzler, twenty-six, Kankakee, and forced him to drive them near Wheaton, Ill., where he was dumped from the machine. The desperadoes then fled in his car.

The men carried out the bold raid in typical Jesse James fashion, even firing several wild shots to frighten passengers. Apparently they boarded the fast mail train, the Gulf Coast-bound "Luisiane," either in Chicago or at a suburban point.

THREE DON MASKS

Some miles out of the city three of the men donned masks, cowed a brakeman and a porter and systematically robbed the passengers in the buffet car and three coaches.

George Kerr, Chicago salesman, was shot in the hip as he sought to resist the men. He was removed to a hospital after the train stopped here.

Passengers said the gang apparently operated in the same fashion in each car, firing a shot into the ceiling to instill fear and then announcing they would "shoot your brains out" if the passengers resisted. At pistol point they compelled M. L. Robinson, a Pullman porter, to accompany them through the cars to lock doors after them.

SHOT WHEN RESISTING

Trainmen said they first obtained $300 from occupants of the club car.

IS CONSIDERING PRISON PROBE

Minister of Justice Stoutly Defends Penitentiaries and Superintendent

OTTAWA, April 4 (CP).—Canadian penitentiaries stand as a model for the world, Minister of Justice Hugh Guthrie told the House of Commons today when pressed by Agnes Macphail, Hon. Ernest LaPointe, Hon. W. D. Euler and other members of the Opposition for a wide-open, penal investigation.

The minister said he would consider appointing the Royal commission which has been urged for the last three or four years. He was told it would clear up public opinion, which believed something was wrong in penitentiary affairs, influenced by riots, fires and disturbance in prisons.

VOTE FINALLY PASSED

It was penitentiary day in the House, with the $2,800,000 vote finally passing a few minutes before the 11 o'clock adjournment hour. At times, criticism was heaped on the head of General D. M. Ormond, superintendent of penitentiaries, who sat in front of the minister, supplying various details. He was accused of being incompetent, a novice in penology, and the charge was made that his word could not be accepted.

Far-reaching reforms have been instituted in the last three years by General Ormond, the minister said. Others would follow, including the Borstal system of segregation for youthful offenders. In addition, a psychologist and a psychiatrist will be appointed to each penitentiary.

William Aberhart to Head Social Credit League in Next Alberta Elections

CALGARY, April 4 (CP).—Committed to political action as the "Fourth Party" in the forthcoming Alberta election, in mid-June, the Alberta Social Credit League tonight elected its founder, William Aberhart, as leader in the campaign, and granted him wide powers in the selection of candidates.

After the fifty-four-year-old Calgary school teacher, and founder of the Proprietary Bible Institute, had warned the delegates he must be given a free hand, the convention moved forward rapidly in formulating a political programme.

Work and Wages Chief Objectives Of Men in Camps

Youthful Witness Says Fancy Food Not Wanted—
Major-General E. C. Ashton Says Camps Are Not
"Military" Nor Staffed by Military Men—
Explains System to Commission

VANCOUVER, April 4 (CP).—An eighteen-year-old Vancouver youth today told the Royal Commission investigating conditions in relief camps throughout British Columbia that what the majority of single unemployed men in the camps wanted was work and wages, not fancy food. When commissioners commented on his youth he stated that there were boys only fourteen years old in some camps.

The commission adjourned after its initial two-day public hearings, without announcing its next step.

"We don't care whether they give us good hot cakes or not," Vincent LaGrandeur said. "What we want to know is when we can get work and wages." LaGrandeur said he had been in relief camps since he was sixteen, but never under his right name.

Other witnesses today gave their opinions on camp conditions.

CLERKS AUTOCRATIC

Norman Holby said that in some camps the clothing clerks were more autocratic than the foremen. He did not believe in the rule that refused camp workers the right to protest collectively, but admitted it was the fault of the system and not of the camp authorities.

P. W. Dunning, who admitted dodging the "black list" by the simple expedient of dropping the last three letters from his name, said that a camp foreman at Sorrento had refused to pay any attention to him when he told the foreman about several dynamite caps lying around and endangering the men.

Relief camps in British Columbia are not "military" camps, nor are they staffed by military men, Major-General E. C. Ashton, officer commanding Military District No. 11, declared to the commission.

SKETCHES HISTORY

At the request of the commission, General Ashton sketched the history of operation of relief camps by the Department of National Defence. Although there may be men in the camp staffs who bear military titles—former service men—there are no military appointments, he said.

He explained the food used in the camps is the regular army ration or its equivalent in cost. Up to a year ago, all contracts for staples were let in Ottawa, he declared, but local purchases have been increased, and almost complete local purchasing will be effective in future.

The General explained the system of work—eight-hour day, five and one-half days a week. Men did not get their allowance on days when they did not work, he said.

Asked about the "black list," he said the administration has no power of punishment in camps. If a man makes trouble, the camp foreman has only one course—get rid of him. If men are discharged for "cause," their names are reported. These names are now passed to other provinces.

MANY REINSTATED

Up to March, 1934, he continued, there was no right to reinstate a man in camp after he had been discharged or had removed himself. Now, the district officer commanding has the right to reinstate at his discretion. Many men are reinstated, he said. He knew of some who had been reinstated two or three times. On reinstatement, they subscribe to a form which binds them to abide by regulations.

Questioned concerning the tobacco supply, General Ashton explained the "issue" is based, not on quantity, but on a certain allowed cost. Recently, he said, the price of tobacco had risen, and therefore the issue had decreased. Canteens are operated by foremen in the camps, and goods are supposed to be sold at a slight profit, devoted to purchase of recreational equipment.

He said there is no grant for recreational equipment, and there is a need for radios.

HART'S

Unique Relic of Early Explorers

Above is pictured a remarkable memento of the days when seamen always carried arms on going ashore on Vancouver Island. It is an old naval boarding pistol, that carried a bayonet, operated by a spring. This curiosity is owned by Dr. G. B. Brown, of Nanaimo. It was given to him some thirty years ago by a Victoria resident, who dug it up near Cadboro Bay. There is no date on the old pistol, but the makers were Parks & Lawton. In addition to the bayonet the hammer (now missing) was controlled by a safety catch. Similarly, the operation of the bayonet was made possible by the movement of a slide. The steel was drawn back and held by a catch, which may be seen directly behind the firing pan. After discharging the weapon the sailor could pull back the catch, and the strong spring would throw the bayonet forward, where it would be held in place by another spring.

MARINE DRIVE MAY BE CLOSED

Portion Through Mount
Douglas Park Is Reported
As Dangerous

That part of Marine Drive running through Mount Douglas Park, and washed out by the floods recently, may be closed immediately if the Victoria City Council does not agree to road diversion projects of the Saanich Council.

At last night's council meeting, a letter from Victoria was read asking the council to institute protection work along the existing road, to include cribbing, filling and drainage, and erection of a wall on the seaward side of the road to give the road a firm foundation.

However, the Saanich Council refused to act on that suggestion, claiming the cost would be too expensive. The council had previously asked the city to agree to a diversion of the road by moving it some forty feet from the bank. This, the council decided last night, would be the only way in which Saanich could assist. Otherwise, the council would order the road closed in the interests of public safety.

The road-moving project was estimated to cost about $500.

TWO BROTHERS ARE CONVICTED

Owen and Hugh Petticrew
Found Guilty by Judge
Lampman

Convicted in the County Court by Judge P. S. Lampman of having broken and entered the store of Walter Hobson in Esquimalt, Owen and Hugh Petticrew were put on trial yesterday on another charge of breaking and entering the Rogers candy store, on Yates Street, with intent to commit theft on January 17. The Crown's case was in charge of Henry Hall, K.C., and was almost completed when court adjourned until this morning.

In view of the fact that incidents connected with the Dawley case were introduced in cross-examination of Constable Thomas Stevenson by A. J. Patton, counsel for Hugh Petticrew, Mr. Hall stated he would like to call Detective H. F. Jarvis this morning.

ATTACKED CASE

In connection with the Esquimalt charge, David S. Tait, who appeared for Owen Petticrew, yesterday attacked the evidence offered by the Crown. He contended that the affidavits of the accused were sufficient to warrant an acquittal. Sentence of the accused was postponed until after the hearing of the second charge.

THINKS COSTS WILL DECREASE

Secretary to Prime Minister
Discusses Employment
And Social Insurance

OTTAWA, April 4 (CP).—Administrative costs of the employment and social insurance fund would decrease gradually as the plan continued to operate, but the percentage administrative costs of the revenue of the fund would be under 15 per cent for the first few years, R. K. Finlayson, secretary to Prime Minister R. B. Bennett, today told the Senate banking and commerce committee.

It was difficult to give an accurate estimate of the percentage costs of the fund's revenue for administration, the Prime Minister's secretary said. He gave the committee administrative costs under the British unemployment insurance scheme. During the four years ended in 1930, he said, the cost per capita (insured person) in Britain was 45 of one pound. These were years of heavy employment, he added. For the years ending in 1930 the per capita cost in England was .42 of one pound.

OTHER COST FACTORS

As the Dominion scheme was so nearly parallel to the British scheme, Mr. Finlayson said, perhaps the main factor to be taken into account in estimating cost on a per capita basis was the wide expense of relatively sparsely-settled country over which operations would extend. In addition, salaries and costs generally were probably materially higher than in England.

Mr. Finlayson was opposed to exception of the retail trade from the plan. He had no objection to reducing the exemption for non-manual labor under the scheme from $2,000 to $1,800.

Request was filed from the Canadian Grocers' Wholesale Association for exception of the wholesale trade.

I could not eat right. I did not sleep well and could do my work only with great difficulty. This condition was due to chronic constipation from which I suffered severely. Nothing gave me relief until I tried Fruit-a-tives. Soon after I started using them I became regular, my headaches and irritation disappeared. WOULD TAKE OFF BILLION

Auditor Suggests Financial Structure of C.N.R. Be Greatly Written Down

OTTAWA, April 4 (CP).—Writing down by $1,046,331,686 of the Canadian National Railways' financial structure was urged today before the Parliamentary railways committee by O. A. Matthews, of the auditing firm of George A. Touche & Company. This would leave the set-up of the system at $765,306,362, plus the bonded indebtedness to the public of $1,246,000,000.

Included in the suggested write-off was $164,627,738 of the old Grand Trunk stock which was declared by an arbitration board to be worthless. Canadian Northern stock should be written down from $100,000,000 to $18,000,000, since approximately $82,000,000 did not represent money contributed in any form to that system.

ADVANCES FOR DEFICITS

Dominion advances for deficits to the railways, totaling $324,074,527, and accruals of interest amounting to $459,486,188, should also be wiped out, Mr. Matthews recommended. Finally, the sum of $15,142,633, he said, should be cleaned off, this representing Government grants to aid construction of the Grand Trunk.

No actual assets existed to cover this huge sum and there was no prospect whatever of the Government being reimbursed for any of its outlays.

Mr. Matthews dealt with what he called misconceptions in the public mind regarding the financial operations of the system.

CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING

Corporate advances to the system had been considered as direct assets of the Dominion in the early days. Capital advances for corporate purposes had been treated as loans while capital advances for the C.N.R. were treated as expenditures. Treatment of cash deficits had also given rise to misunderstandings, he said.

From 1923 to 1927 cash deficits were treated as loans, particularly as they affected the Eastern lines. From 1927 to 1931 they were so treated throughout the system, but with the Eastern lines excluded. From 1931 to 1934, said Mr. Matthews, they were treated as direct contributions by the Dominion. The profit and loss on the balance sheet had not been the accumulated losses.

JOHN BUCHAN PAYS HONOR TO THE KING

Coming Governor of Canada

Writes Striking Tribute
To His Sovereign

HELPED TO WARM
A CHILLY WORLD

LONDON, April 4 (CP-Havas).—The contribution of John Buchan, new Governor-General of Canada, to the literature of the Jubilee year, "The King's Grace," was published here today.

The book is a striking tribute to King George V, his personality, and his work for the nation and the Empire through the twenty-five years of his reign.

WARMED THE WORLD

"His quick sympathy and kindness have warmed the country and done something to warm a chilly world. When nerves have been breaking, his steadfastness has restored them, and when strife was fermenting he has spoken healing words," writes Buchan.

"The power of the throne lies in what it is, but the authority of the King lies both in what he is and what he has done. With Queen Mary and his family to aid him, he has made Great Britain not only a nation but a household."

"Leadership does not exist only in a strong man imposing his will upon others. In a far profounder sense the King has shown himself the leader, since the true task of leadership is not to put greatness into humanity but to elicit it since greatness is already there."

"That truth is the basis of all religion. It is the only justification for democracy. It is the chart and compass of our moral life. The King is today far more a people's king than when an Edward or a Henry returned in triumph from French wars."

NOT OF A CLASS

"Since Tudor times the phrase has been the King's majesty. Today, an older form of words is more fitting—the King's grace. The King is of no class, being above classes. He is as much akin to the worker in the mine and to the laborer in the field as he is to the highest nobility."

Progress of chemistry was traced from the early ages to the present date by Edward J. Savannah, in an interesting address entitled "Some of the Advancements of Chemistry," which was delivered before a dinner-meeting of the Revelers Club, last night, in Speedie's Cafe.

Mr. Savannah explained that prior to 1860 very little was known of the science, and many of the more important compounds were discovered by accident.

The speaker interspersed the address with several interesting incidents from his experiences in chemical research during the Great War. Rev. Canon Nunns, chaplain of the club, presented the Newbury Cup to W. H. Starck, winner of the recent Revelers bowling tournament.

Members decided to enter a float in the May 24 parade, and preliminary plans were made. Discussion also took place regarding the coming softball season, and the annual banquet was set for April 27.

NEW WESTMINSTER, April 4 (CP).—F. Barter, thirty-six, resident of Port Mann, was instantly killed when he fell seventy-five feet from a bridge over the Fraser Canyon at Chapman's Bar, near Boston Bar, yesterday.

NO INCREASE IN SCALE OF RELIEF
Saanich Council Definitely Shelves
Proposal to Boost Scale 10
Per Cent Now

Saanich relief employees will not receive a 10 per cent increase in the present relief scale this year, it was determined by the Saanich Council last night, when Councillor E. C. Warren's motion, fostering the move, failed to find a seconder.

Councillor Warren maintained high living conditions and the ability of Saanich to pay off a $20,000 bank balance indicated the municipality's ability to add 10 per cent to the present scale.

A scale was presented showing the present rate was only 9 cents per month less than the maximum Provincial Government scale for a man and wife. The scale showed in no instance was the difference more than $7 per month. The scale paid a man and wife with seven children in Saanich was $43, while the Government allowance was $50. However, very few cases of this kind were cared for by the municipality.

Dean of Ottawa Doctors Is Dead

OTTAWA, April 4 (CP).—Dr. Robert W. Powell, seventy-nine, dean of the medical profession in Ottawa, member of the Ontario Medical Council and former president of the Canadian Medical Association, died at his home here today.

No More Piles

Few Pile sufferers know that the cause of Piles is internal—bad circulation of blood in the lower bowel. This is the scientific truth about Piles—the real reason why salves and suppositories so often may not give lasting relief and why cutting sometimes removes the pile tumor but leaves its exciting cause which may create a recurrence.

Your itching, bleeding or protruding Piles will only go when you actually remove the cause. For this an internal medicine should be used. HEM-ROID, the prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonard, sold by good druggists everywhere, succeeds because it stimulates the circulation, and acts to relieve congestion.

So isn't it better, when salves fail and before considering operation, to try this internal remedy when MacFarlane and Vancouver Drug Stores invite every Pile sufferer to try HEM-ROID with money-back if not joyfully satisfied with the help one bottle gives. (Adv.)

"HONEST SERVICE MERITS SUCCESS." It is a gratifying sign of the times that there are so many businessmen who associate good deeds and good habits with good profits. It is only a step from that point to the realization that real profits are measured in more than mere dollars and cents, and that all businesses and all individuals are successful (in the full meaning of the word) in direct proportion to the service which they render others.

GREETED BY STUDENTS AT HIGH SCHOOL

Governor-General Visits Institution and Gives Address
And Holiday
HAS KEEN INTEREST IN EMPIRE AFFAIRS
His Excellency the Governor-General placed himself very high in the opinion of the pupils of the Victoria High School yesterday. Following an instructive address, in which the high qualities of His Majesty the King were set forth, Lord Bessborough apologized for having delivered, he feared, a lecture, and he therefore suggested to the members of the School Board that they allow the pupils a half holiday.
Lord Bessborough, speaking to the pupils, who completely filled the auditorium of the school, said he took a great interest in young Canadians because he was the father of a young Canadian, and that alone should give him marked interest in this great country.
The wide-flung parts of the Empire were referred to by His Excellency, who mentioned the wonderful thanksgiving which would come to the Sovereign of this great commonwealth of nations when the Silver Jubilee of his accession to the throne was celebrated.
GOVERN THEMSELVES
It would come from countries making up the British Empire in all parts of the world. This Empire was the most democratic of people. Some countries had abandoned their form of government since the war, but in the British Empire people governed themselves freely, and preferred to recognize a Sovereign in government. The people, however, governed themselves, he said.
It was fitting that His Majesty should hold the remarkable place he did in the minds of the people. Not only had he manifested the deepest interest in his country, but he had the accumulated experience of preceding sovereigns.
A democratic government, with a sovereign at its head, was regarded as the finest in the world. The deep interest the King took in his people was evidenced by the fact that he set apart a day in the ceremonial marking the accession on which school children should take part.

SCHEME SUGGESTED

lending in the Province of Alberta, they said, because of prior liens the Alberta Government had put into effect in that province.
Dr. Clark's plan would provide sufficient money to a person owning a lot clear of incumbrance to erect a suitable house on it. The money would be supplied by local housing boards and the inspection and appraising of the buildings would be done by the insurance and mortgage companies, who would have the first mortgage on the property.
DETAILS OF FINANCING
A local housing board would finance a building project in the case of homes for owners for say $1,000,000, as follows:
First mortgage debentures to mortgage and insurance companies, $650,000.
Preferred stock to be purchased by the central housing board out of Federal money, $200,000.
Common stock to be purchased by municipal, provincial, charitable bodies, public-spirited citizens and contracting interests, $150,000.
Assuming the sites were worth 10 per cent of the cost of the buildings constructed on them, the total value of the properties would be $1,100,000. The mortgage companies would be advancing 60 per cent of that total, which is the amount required by statute.
An alternative suggestion by Dr. Clark was that mortgage companies advance 80 per cent and the Dominion Government guarantee the top 20 per cent. The process might

Hoping to Have Ships Continue To Call In Here

Viewing with alarm the decision of the Alaskan Steamship Company to pass up Victoria as a port of call, directors of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, at a meeting yesterday, decided to associate the bureau with the Victoria Chamber of Commerce in its endeavor to have the steamship company reconsider its decision.
Mayor David Leeming and George T. Warren, publicity commissioner, were asked to interview T. B. Wilson, Seattle, manager of the company.
Harold Husband, president of the bureau, explained the old schedule of the steamship company called for its vessels to call here twice a week. Should the ships discontinue to call at Victoria, the city would lose a good source of revenue, he pointed out.

ANDITS HOLD UP ILLINOIS TRAIN

forcing the passengers to kneel on the floor. Stepping into the next car the gang encountered Kerr, who apparently believing he was being hoaxed, joshed with a gunman. As he lurched against one man he was shot by a second. The bullet penetrated a billboard containing $40, witnesses said. The gunman compelled him to turn over the currency, but returned the punctured wallet.
For some twenty minutes while the robbers waited for the train to approach the point where they presently dropped off, they kept the passengers under rigid surveillance.
In the train were two mail cars, which ordinarily carry valuable loads, but the robbers made no move to ransack these. Neither did they molest the two baggage cars.
With a last warning to "keep quiet for five more minutes," the mob dropped from the train as it slowed up for the Kankakee stop. Authorities believed they were met by a confederate.

"WAIT AND SEE"

Dr. Manion, the Minister of Railways, has confused the issue in his latest pronouncement on the subject of the future of the railways of the Dominion. He has voiced the Government's viewpoint in opposition to amalgamation of the two transcontinental companies. It might have been anticipated that he would do this, but the issue is as to whether those companies should be operated under a unified control, which is quite a different thing to amalgamation. It is unification that Mr. E. W. Beatty, president of the C.P.R., advocates, not amalgamation. He is specific in saying that the structures of the transcontinental systems should remain separate.

Even in the matter of amalgamation, were it an issue of practical politics, Dr. Manion speaks in the language of exaggeration when he says that such a course "would be a menace to the political and economic life of the Dominion." There would certainly be no menace economically if a saving of a million a week could be made on behalf of the taxpayers of the country. There could be no political menace if the railway system were taken out of politics where it is at present. What Dr. Manion should have discussed, however, is unification of control, a method which is proposed from a strictly economic standpoint with the desire of saving the country from any further increase to its incubus of debt which is piling up because of political control of the Canadian National system. Dr. Manion leaves the mistaken impression on the public mind that amalgamation and unified control are one and the same thing. They are things distinctly apart. Unification proposes a single management and administration, with each transcontinental system preserving its corporate unity, thus rendering it possible, when the solution of the present spendthrift situation is reached, for the Canadian National to revert to its present status.

Dr. Manion says that in the Canadian National-Canadian Pacific Railway Bill of 1933 clause 27 forbids amalgamation. He omitted to say, however, that there is no mention in that legislation respecting unification of control. The language employed by the Minister of Railways does not meet the situation. It is exaggerated because under unification the regulations of the Federal Railway Commission would govern the situation just as they do at present. The truth is that Dr. Manion was speaking politically and estimating the voting strength of the scores of thousands of employees of the nationally-owned railway system. Viewing an economic problem from this standpoint is unworthy of a Minister of the Crown. Dr. Manion was speaking for the Government; yet there is admission that the Government has never considered either amalgamation or unification. The Minister of Railways, in fact, has adopted a policy of "wait and see" for the railway problem instead of giving earnest consideration to the only possible solution that has yet been advanced. He believes that the solution lies in the recovery of world trade. In the meantime the tremendous drain on the country's resources goes on through lack of vision on the part of those whose first consideration should be the welfare of the taxpayers as a whole.

SOCIALISTIC DOCTRINES

"One of the finest problems in legislation," said Edmund Burke, "is what the State ought to take upon itself to direct by the public wisdom, and what it ought to leave with as little interference as possible, to individual discretion." The Socialist, whose mentality is not that of Edmund Burke and whose political experience is very often nil, has no doubts on the subject. He believes there is no wisdom except public wisdom and that public wisdom is infallible.

The Socialist policy has always been kaleidoscopic. It varies in different countries. Modern Socialism, as it is known in British lands, saw its origin with the Fabian Society forty years ago. Since then it has assumed many shapes and formulated many doctrines. As a theory it is chameleon-like; as a workable thesis it has never been proved. Last October, however, a Socialist Conference in Great Britain laid down certain tenets which are briefly summarized as follows:

To encompass the entire economic life of the nation within a system of "scientific planning" from the centre.

To nationalize (with "fair" compensation for existing owners) all the key industries, including the banks, transport, water, coal, electricity, gas, agriculture, iron and steel, shipping, shipbuilding, engineering, textiles, chemicals and insurance and to reorganize them with the objectives, among others, of securing "reasonable" wages for the producers and "reasonable" prices for the consumers.

To acquire powers of public regulation over all industries left in private hands.

To give the workers a statutory right to an "effective" share in the direction and control of industrialized industries.

To raise "industrial standards" by all manner of legislation, including the establishment of a forty-hour week.

To carry out a "bold and continuous" programme of increasing expenditure on the social services, notably education, public health, housing, pensions and the dole.

To carry out an enormous programme of public works and national development, for which the resources of the country will be "amply sufficient," thanks in particular to the "social control" of finance.

To administer the national income "wisely" by redistributing it through taxation.

To "adapt" the machinery of government to the task of Socialist reconstruction.

Socialism is a creed of prodigious expenditure and lavish taxation. It is slavery under the guise of a dreamy Utopia. It would make the members of society mere automata under an all-pervasive political and economic tyranny. They would speedily become, as any practical exposition of its implications goes to show, the impoverished victims of wild and impracticable theories. It is only necessary to bring intelligence to bear on the Socialist formula for that intelligence to realize that it cannot be degraded to a level with the meanest intellects. Too many people already have become ensnared by this calamitous delusion. They are dupes of those who see in Socialism an opportunity to attain political power and material advancement and who are unscrupulous enough to use the most fantastic arguments in pressing relentlessly towards their goal.

ALBERTA'S ELECTION ISSUE

Whoever fails to understand what Major Douglas's social credit scheme stands for is rebuked by the exponents of that creed as willfully opposed to its study, or else crassly ignorant of economic matters. That is, of course, not the way to forward any venture; nor is the Douglas cause helped by the methods of exposition adopted by its supporters inasmuch as they leave so many of its implications in cloudland and appear to be pursuing an ignis fatuus of their own imaginations. To be dogmatic about theories that have never been tried in practice is a sign of minds that are given to obsessions, and the same sign is evidenced when distemper marks the reaction to just and lawful criticism.

Major Douglas, at considerable expense, is now to go to Alberta to propound a scheme of economic reconstruction for that province. The Farmers' Government wants him there so that he may provide a political issue on which it can appeal at an election that is imminent. There is obviously nothing like bemusing the people when their support is being sought. There is somewhat of an inkling of this in the comment of The New Statesman and Nation, of London, on the Albertan "experiment." It says:

"It is a piquant item of news that the Farmers' Government of Alberta, Canada, has appointed Major Douglas to be its official adviser on Economic Reconstruction. What advice will Major Douglas now proceed to give? Alberta, as a province, has no power to adopt an independent currency policy or to influence to any appreciable extent the conditions of credit. It can hardly adopt a price-formula based on Major Douglas's famous 'A' and 'B' theorem, as long as the rest of Canada remains wedded to price-adjustment on more orthodox lines. In some ways we wish it could; for it would be exceedingly interesting to watch the results. . . . We eagerly await results, for, despite some careful study of Major Douglas's works, we have never been able to understand precisely what his practical proposals are."

JUBILEE HOSPITAL TAG-DAY

The prominent place given to X-ray in modern medical practice, more especially for diagnostic purposes, is illustrated in the appeal that is being made by the Women's Auxiliary of the Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital in connection with its annual tag-day tomorrow. Citizens are asked to complete the purchase of a mobile X-ray equipment for use at the bedside. After the manner of the legend of Mahomet and the mountain, a considerable number of cases will hereafter be treated in the bedroom that could not well be taken to the X-ray department; indeed, an increase of ten per cent at least in range of operation is anticipated. In a hundred other ways the Women's Auxiliary stands behind the hospital in ministering to the sick, as it has done for many years. Citizens may be assured that every nickel given today will bring its full quota of comfort to one or other of the patients at the Royal Jubilee.

AN AN ANTI-NATIONAL PARTY

One of the worst features of the British Labor Party is its readiness to side with the opponents of this country. It is a dispute arises with Great Britain in any part of the world the Labor Party is almost certain to range itself against the home Government. That has been the experience of recent years, whether it be in Moscow, Egypt, India, South Africa, or anywhere else.—Belfast Telegraph.

Note and Comment

E. J. R. D.

Now, by two-headed Janus.
Nature hath framed strange figures in her time. —Shakespeare.

The exclamatory phrase "Cry Havoc!" has become a part of the popular vocabulary. We believe the phrase was used first by the Bard of Avon in one of his plays. We also believe the phrase has been adopted by a modern playwright as the title of his piece. Fancy plays curious tricks with us all occasionally. Why fancy should associate the phrase "Cry Havoc!" with another old apocryphal story about the effects of the visit of a bull to a china shop we do not know. Possibly the association may be due to the fact that there are so many wild men traversing Canada, making speeches about matters they do not understand and producing chaos of thought in the minds of other people who do not understand that the general effect may be described as resembling a china shop after the mythical bull had been on a rampage.

We see by the papers that M. Henri Bourassa, who in the days of his youth was one of the wildest of men, but in the days of his maturity had become as tame as the bull which had been subdued by the customary trick of the stock-raiser of fastening a ring in his nose, has burst out again in a tirade against Great Britain as representative of Imperialism, and the inevitable consequence of Imperialism—war. M. Bourassa vehemently demands that the British Government shall be told that if there shall be an another war Canada must be counted out of it; that if Britain wants to fight she must fight alone.

The diatribe of the emotional member for Labelle hardly seems apropos at this time, considering that representatives of Great Britain have been for years engaged in pilgrimages to all the capitals of Europe, pointing out the benefits of peace and the destructive consequences of war. We have always been doubtful regarding the consequences of this and other forms of preaching, but the actions of the British Ministers must be, considered as demonstrating that the Government they represent is in favor of peace and opposed to war. M. Bourassa is of French descent and an accomplished French scholar. We believe he has often pointed with pride to the fact that the French language he uses in his speeches and his writings is purer in its classical connotations than the French spoken and written in Paris or any other part of France. The danger to peace, wherever it may be found, is not to be found in Great Britain; it possibly may be traced to the continental nations of Europe. There is undoubtedly a war dread, if not a war fever, surging throughout France.

Therefore denouncing war and extolling the virtues of peace under any circumstances seems like belittling into the wind. The Canadian people are peacefully inclined, and experience has taught them to abhor the very idea of war. Mr. Bourassa should go over to France and tell the people of the blood of which he is so fond that they should cultivate the spirit of peace and of all the arts which can flourish only in times of peace. Unfortunately, however, peace cannot be maintained and secured by making speeches and securing the adoption of resolutions in Parliament and in public meetings.

There are times when war, like happiness, is a state of mind. There is a state of mind in Europe at the present time which is a menace to peace. We in Canada may deplore such a state of mind, but what can we do about it? In respect to armaments our condition is negligible. As a nation we are unarmed and defenceless both on land and sea. That is why when we read about meetings held for the purpose of demanding that all nations shall disarm we wonder at the simplicity of human nature; why we wonder what the thoughts of the statesmen of other nations must be when they read about our futile demands and ponder over them.

The depression has produced a lot of new statesmen who can only properly be described as wild men, ramping through the country like bulls in a china shop, creating havoc and raising Cain. Premier Hepburn of Ontario is a typical specimen of the new breed and Mayor McGeer of Vancouver is another. Both these new statesmen, seeking personal credit, have brought discredit not only upon our political institutions, but upon our economic institutions. By their speeches and their actions they have rendered the establishment of the credit of all governments more unstable. Unfortunately the depression has produced a state of mind which is favorable to the objects of political quacks and irresponsible demagogues. There will be candidates for Parliament and Legislatures who have never been able to serve.

themselves, but will be quite willing to place their talents at the service of the country—at an established scale of prices. The wild men will pass, but they will leave a hard job for their successors.

VOTE AGAINST LEAVING PORT

Ketchikan Fishermen Maintain Stand With Rest of U.S. Halibut Fleet

KETCHIKAN, Alaska, April 4 (AP).—Maintaining their stand along with the rest of the American halibut fleet centring at Seattle for a minimum price of 8 and 10 cents a pound, members of the Halibut Fishing Union voted sixty-three to one here last night against going out onto the banks.

At Prince Rupert, B.C., however, during the day, the first schooner of a group of about fifteen put out of port, ending their five weeks' strike. The owners manned their boats, with Captain A. C. Christensen taking the Prosperity out as the first one to leave. The remaining boats of the fleet will still remain in port.

The smaller fleets at Vancouver and Victoria are also out fishing, but the major American fleet of about 350 centring at Seattle are still in port. No progress has been reported in continuing negotiations there.

Bill Kersey, our Keating news agent and correspondent, who used to think he was an early riser, tells this one on himself. About 4 a.m. one very cold morning last week while covering his route, he met a farmer plodding along the road. Being possessed of a rather friendly nature, and desiring to talk to somebody, Bill thought it a good idea to greet his fellow traveler with a remark about the weather. "Pretty cold this morning isn't it?" said Bill. The tiller of the soil regarded him rather surprised and remarked, "Well, 'twas first thing."—W.F.P.

History Repeating

When Lord Shaftesbury took up factory reform and undertook the work of Michael Sadler, defeated at Leeds, to pilot the "Ten Hours" Bill through the British House of Commons, he was opposed by such brilliant minds as Sir John Peel, John Bright and men like Cobden. It was an unfriendly House. Dean Quainton told an audience in his lecture at the Memorial Hall recently, "and he was opposed by the manufacturing interests with the cry 'you must not interfere with industry and business.' How like the present day. I should very much like to hear what the money bags of the East have to say about Mr. Bennett's social reform ideas."—R.A.G.

Less Comedy This Year?

With the announcement a few days ago that a Victoria Baseball Club had been formed, it looks as if the Senior Amateur League will not be in operation this season. Formation of the new club means that the fans will be witnessing exhibition games on holidays and Saturdays against strong outside opposition. One thing is certain the senior league cannot operate and produce the brand of ball they did last year and get the citizens to support them. The club of ball was miserable to say the least, but the fans went to the enclosure to get a laugh and usually did about twice a week. So let's hope the new club will give the people what they want, better baseball.—J.D.

Wooden Fish

"Bill Nye," one of Victoria's most famous waterfront characters, was an object of curiosity to those passing along the causeway at dinner time recently. The old man at first sight appeared to be angling where the Parliament Buildings surface drain empties into the harbor, (emulating those who fish off Clover Point). On close investigation he was found to be fishing for bits of drift-wood with a hook and line.—G.B.

Dignity and Pride

After hearing the verbal castigation handed out by Premier Pattullo to the Vancouver papers, it is respectfully suggested that he read and reflect on Lord's words: "Dignity without pride was formerly the characteristic of greatness; the revolution in morals is completed, and it is now pride without dignity."

Stick in a Tree

According to forestry experts, the present generation will see the last of the Douglas firs on this Coast. Such being the case, it would be sound policy for the Minister of Lands to pay heed to the words of the old Highland laird, quoted by Scott, in his "Heart of Midlothian": "Jock, ye hae naething else to do, ye may be aye sticking in a tree; it will be growing, Jock, when ye're sleeping."

Better Terms for the Island

This matter of "Better Terms" should be like charity. It should start at home. Its just about time that a new deal was handed out to Vancouver Island. Since 1866 the cards have been dealt from the bottom of the deck, and the Island

Land of Lilliput Grown Amazingly In Two Centuries

British Columbia, With Its Output of Six Billions in Natural Wealth, Has Sprung Up in That "Western Sea" of Which Dean Swift Told

FROM the mythical Land of Lilliput, where Dean Swift centred unchallenged in an unknown "western sea" the strange adventures of Gulliver, to a Province of 700,000 people that has produced more than $6,000,000,000 in natural wealth for the world, has been British Columbia's progress in less than 170 years. That, probably, is the chief lesson taught by the first historical films taken in the British Columbia Archives, and shown yesterday at the Provincial Museum.

The films were prepared by the Home Oil Distributors, Ltd., as a straight historical record, without a line of advertising. Their preview before a small group at the museum yesterday produced a most flattering impression. Dr. Kaye Lamb, archivist, with whose assistance the films were made, complimented the company on the production of three reels of great educational value and a set that will be a lasting inspiration to British Columbians.

PIONEER TIMES
The films go back to the early explorations of Captain Cook. Captain George Vancouver, Simon Fraser, and the first beginnings of all British Columbia settlement under the Hudson's Bay Company. Necessarily that portion of the films are pictures of still life, but taken from authenticated records in the Provincial Archives. From the charts, maps, journals and diaries of the famous explorers, to the earliest drawings of contemporary artists have been built up an

Mayor Leeming and Ald. J. A. Worthington Report On Conferences

Encouraging reports showing tourists centres throughout the Pacific Northwest were certain of a great tourist year and were prepared to encourage all visitors to travel north to Victoria this Summer were given by Mayor David Leeming and Alderman John A. Worthington yesterday at a directors' meeting of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau.

Mayor Leeming, who represented Victoria at the March conference of the Montanans, Incorporated, held in Butte, stated that of the 100 publicity groups represented, all had a friendly feeling toward Victoria and openly declared their friendship and desire to urge tourists to come to Vancouver Island.

WILL VISIT CITY

Alderman Worthington, who represented Victoria two weeks ago at the Olympic Peninsula Resort Owners' meeting in Aberdeen and at the Northern Hotelmen's Association of Oregon conference at Gearheart-by-the-Sea, spoke of the good will felt by the Americans toward Victoria and the Island. Alderman Worthington also visited Portland, and there received a promise from Mayor Joseph Carson that he would come to Victoria for the May 24 celebrations.

Through the medium of newspapers and magazines in Canada, United States and the Hawaiian Islands, Victoria is continuing to receive valuable publicity. George I. Warren, publicity commissioner, advised directors.

MAINTAINS INDUSTRY

From Morgan Eastman, noted advertising and publicity expert of North America, a communication was received stating that Victoria had maintained the tourist industry to a greater degree than any other section of Canada.

Mr. Warren reported that on his suggestion the Seattle Chamber of Commerce had petitioned the United States Government to bring about an agreement with Canada, whereby no duty would be charged on publicity advertising being exchanged across the border. At present such material as folders describing beauty spots in cities and districts is charged fifteen cents a pound duty, it was stated.

Many Are Helping in Cancer Fight

Residents of Vancouver Island are determined to play their part in Canada's warfare on cancer. The fund for research work into the causes of this awful disease, which is being raised to commemorate the silver jubilee year of His Majesty's reign, must be closed in a few days. Already there has been a generous response to the newspapers, which are collecting, but those who are anxious to play their parts in this noble work are asked to send in contributions as soon as possible.

Best of City Gardens To Be Open to Public

Victoria Horticultural Association Arranges for Full Week of Tours in Connection With Annual Spring Flower Show at Willows

The Garden Festival, inaugurated by the Vancouver Island Horticultural Association, in connection with the annual Spring Flower Show, will be repeated this year and will be extended to provide a full week of attractions.

Commencing on Easter Monday, April 22, when by the kindness of Mrs. Dunsmuir the grounds of Hatley Park will be opened to hold-ers of tickets for the festival, garden lovers will be given the opportunity of inspecting most of the large and beautiful gardens for which Victoria is famous.

By courtesy of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, the grounds of Government House will be open on Wednesday, April 24, and visitors will also be permitted to explore a number of other beautiful gardens situated on Rockland Avenue.

Tuesday, April 23, is to be the day for visiting gardens in Oak Bay. On this day the programme will include such well-known gardens as those of Mrs. C. F. Armstrong, H. R. Beaven and W. P. D. Pemberton, as well as many others of very great beauty.

For Thursday a drive around Cadboro Bay and Gordon Head will afford visitors an opportunity of seeing several outstanding gardens in the Municipality of Saanich.

As a fitting conclusion there will be the Spring Flower Show on Friday and Saturday, April 26 and 27, which will bring together, in the Main Building at the Willows, the best that Victoria can grow, in competition with the best that grows anywhere on Vancouver Island.

bia camps operated by the Department of National Defence flailed yesterday, with 99 per cent. of the men remaining in camp, and a few scattered groups distributed over the highways from Chilliwack to Boston Bar.

Provincial reports in the late afternoon showed twenty of the 140 single men quartered in National Defence camps at Sooke and Maccallay had left the camps and come to Victoria; that sixteen men were reported at Kamloops from camps in that vicinity, and that less than 1,100 of the 8,500 men in camp throughout British Columbia appeared to have gone on strike against the receipt of relief.

REFUSE ASSISTANCE

Provincial officials stood firmly by their pre-announced word, and refused any form of assistance to the few men who applied at various centres throughout the province, taking the stand that agitation and unrest were no cure for an admittedly difficult problem.

RELIEF CAMP STRIKE GIVEN POOR SUPPORT

Repeating the experience of last year, it is expected that a few days will elapse before stragglers from the camps make their way into Vancouver and other centres. The net effect so far is that the men who left camp have put themselves off relief.

DIKE SCHEME CONSIDERED

An extensive drainage and flood control dike project in the Island View Beach district, may be carried out by the Saanich Council, at a cost of $4,500. Frequent complaints of a mosquito menace in the area prompted the council to have Municipal Engineer H. H. Allen submit a plan of the proposed undertaking.

The project, if approved, would call for the excavation of a six-foot ditch, some 4,000 feet in length, connected with a manhole to control the flow of drained water.

The natural dike at the beach would be reinforced, under Mr. Allen's plan, with two piled sections, banked with logs and sand, one 650 feet in length and the other 1,050 feet.

No action was taken by the council pending a conference with property owners concerned. It is expected some proposal of joint payment for the project will be discussed. Engineer Allen was commended by the council for the excellent plan submitted.

About 150 acres of land, in the Island View Beach section, all adjacent to the waterfront, are under water.

Farewell Tea Given By I.O.D.E. in Honor Of Her Excellency

Countess of Bessborough Says "Au Revoir" to 300 Members of Municipal Chapter—Receives Gift of Water-Color as Souvenir

"Oh, how much I do appreciate all your affection and kindness," said Her Excellency the Countess of Bessborough, in acknowledging the greeting of 300 members of Municipal Chapter I.O.D.E. at the tea arranged in her honor at the Empress Hotel yesterday afternoon.

The members of Halifax Chapter were the first to greet us on our arrival in Canada four years ago," she continued, "and now in the farthest West, the I.O.D.E. again greets us and wishes us farewell. I hope you will give the same loyalty and affection to our successors, who, I feel sure, will be more able to fill their parts than we have done. You have been wonderful friends, and I say 'au revoir' for I cannot say 'good-bye,' as I hope we shall meet again the years to come."

GIFT FROM CHAPTER

On behalf of Municipal Chapter, Mrs. William Ellis, the regent, very charmingly voiced the heartfelt love of all the members, and asked Her Excellency to accept, as a small souvenir of remembrance, a beautiful framed water-color of Mount Baker, the work of a local artist, Mrs. Penn. The gift was received by Her Excellency in her own particularly gracious manner, amid the applause of the members of the chapter.

Famous Designers Presenting New Styles

From Paris, the style-centre of the world, come these new modes as described below to grace Victoria stores. The Spring fashion showing is now well under way, with new variations to capture the fancy.

Mainbocher knows what gentlewomen like to wear. With grey, beige and a great deal of navy blue he makes coats and skirts; his little dresses, with white jabots and frills, cuffs and gloves of lingerie or trimmed with it, are fresh and simple. When there is no jabot there is a scarf. The neckline of blouses and dresses is low in front; sleeves, whether short or long, are not too noticeable.

Mainbocher's new skirt is looped, either all round the hem or in panels. Other skirts with godets, not pleats, are fuller in front than behind. In two dresses the waist is high and straight, and slightly Directoire in line. All sorts of capes, boleros and little jackets are made. Long coats to go over Summer dresses are simply cut, well crossed over in front and collarless.

LOVELY EVENING GOWNS
Fruit and flowers are put on evening dresses; the skirts are full all round or draped up the back and slim in front. Wide trains are finely wired round the hem to fall straight. High-necked dinner dresses have little sleeves. Evening jumpers tops give a slim line; one or two crepes and chiffons have feather capes, the plumes of which are printed with the pattern on the dress.

There are colored tulle capes falling below the waist for the evening, besides colored silk capes. The combination of afternoon and evening colors is delicate. With a dress of pale rose pink crepe is a big bunch of Parma violets. Over a pale rose satin dress is a half-length ruffled cape of bright green tulle. With a pearl grey crepe dress is a pale grey satin cape.

Satin and crepe dresses are cut on princess lines, easy and slender. Flowers give color to pale dresses, strong effects.

Delightful Silver Tea Is Arranged

The silver tea, held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. M. Bannerman, 1823 Chambers Street, by members of the Camosun Chapter, I.O.D.E., was a most delightful affair, about eighty guests being welcomed by Mrs. Bannerman, Mrs. George Miles, the regent of the chapter, and Miss Irene Bannerman.

The drawing-room and sitting-room were beautifully arranged with jonquils and daffodils, and tea was served in the drawing-room, the table spread with a lovely Madeira cloth, and centred by an amber glass bowl of daffodils, jonquils, tulips and plum blossom. Mrs. William Ellis poured tea and members of the chapter assisted in serving.

GOOD PROGRAMME

A musical programme was much enjoyed, and opened by Mrs. Fred Elgers with a piano solo, "Autumn," a composition of her own. Mrs. Corbett, a Musical Festival winner, then sang "Danny Boy" and "The Good-Bye," and Mrs. Elgers then played two delightful violin selections from "Cavaleria Rusticana" and "The Palms," while Mrs. Eric Jones played the piano accompaniments. Two songs by Mrs. Jones, "The Swallow" and "The Fairies," and a monologue by Irma Falk, a pupil of Mrs. Reese Burns, were enthusiastically received by the guests.

The programme was brought to a conclusion with a trio, Miss Bannerman singing "One Fleeting Hour" and "At Dawning," Mrs. Eric Jones playing the piano accompaniment, and Mrs. P. Eilers, the violin obligato.

ST. JOHN'S

Very Rev. C. S. Quainton gave a talk to the members of St. John's A.Y.P.A. on Monday evening and took as his topic "Some Thoughts on Liberty." A quotation of a great French philosopher, "Man is born to be free, but everywhere we find him in chains," served as the main feature. The Dean gave splendid illustrations of the "chains" which bind men. Some amusing incidents were taken from the play "Eliza Comes to Stay," emphasizing again the "chains." Following the address, an interesting discussion took place, when it was urged to put selfishness out of our lives and try to live more for Christ.

Stanley Cooper presided at the business session. A satisfactory report on the progress of the play was received. It was decided to hike to Thetis Lake on Good Friday. On Sunday, April 7, the regular corporate Communion will take place, followed by breakfast. A practice for the play will be held on April 8, in place of a regular meeting.

ST. JOHN'S

A corporate Evesong service was held in St. John's Church, Lady-smith, on Sunday, when every A.Y.P.A. member attended. Several of the members participated in the service. The lessons were read by E. James and Miss A. Mahaffey, while the offertory was taken by E. Brown and G. Winstanley. Miss Sheila Akenhead was soloist, with E. Lowe at the organ. Duncan A.Y.P.A. was represented at the service, and a special message to the young people was delivered by the rector, Rev. E. Spurling. A fellowship meeting, conducted by N. Southcott, of Duncan, who gave a talk on "Christian Fellowship," was held in the parish hall following the service. During the meeting, Miss Creighton rendered a piano selection, and Messrs. Dobson and Davison were the vocalists. Miss S. Akenhead and P. Spurling, the social committee, were in charge of the refreshments served before the meeting concluded.

ST. MARY'S

St. Mary's A.Y.P.A. held a short business meeting on Wednesday evening during which a number of the members volunteered to tag on April 20, in aid of the Citizens' Recreation Rooms. After the meeting there was a debate on "Daylight Saving." The affirmative was upheld by Mrs. Hayward and F. Bowie, while their opponents were Misses B. Haggen and G. Williams. The decision was given in favor of the negative, and Mr. Yerburgh, who acted as judge, also gave helpful advice to the team. Two visiting members from St. John's A.Y.P.A. attended the debate.

The Beautiful Derelict

by Evelyn Wells

SYNOPSIS

Fleming Stone, famous New York detective, is bound for home aboard the Nova Scotia-New York steamer Nokomis when a drifting yacht is sighted in a fog the day after one of the international yacht races. With Captain Gregg's permission, Stone accompanies a lifeboat crew and discovers two dead men aboard the beautiful craft, young Barry Wayne, owner and captain, and Elkins Van Zandt, of New York, a guest. Stone notices the constable, and is ordered to tow the yacht, the Mad Anthony, to New London. An inquest develops that Van Zandt accompanied Barry to the race when Barry was killed. Stone is permitted to go ashore with her father. Medical testimony indicates that Barry was killed soon after the start by a blow on the head with some heavy blunt instrument. That Van Zandt died about the same time from ulcers of the stomach. Barry was the son of a famous New York lawyer and passed his summers with him and his brother, Patrick Henry Wayne, on their estate at Sand Hill, Westchester Island. U.S. Attorney Demarest gladly accepts Stone's offer to work on the mysterious case, which has been the subject of a puzzling double murder, despite the autopsy findings, and the fact that Van Zandt was a slightly built man of 40, probably incapable of delivering the blow that killed Barry. Stone, Mrs. Vera Van Zandt, a guest, becomes stormily hysterical and is led away by Mrs. Mingle, the housekeeper. Jane Holt and her father, Stephen, also are guests. Jane declares some enemy boarded the yacht to kill Barry.

"You inherited his spirit of enterprise and daring?"

"More or less, in my youth. But Barry was the mad one of our family just now. He feared nothing, dared anything and was everlastingly getting into some sort of trouble."

"Is there, then, a possibility that he could have incurred the ill-will of some revengeful enemy, and it resulted in his death?"

"It seems to me that could be possible. Not all Barry's quarrels were of a trifling sort, though he was too good-natured to have a real enemy."

"I wouldn't say that, Pat," objected his brother. "Barry was quick-tempered, but he never held malice. It was all over quickly."

"Maybe Dan. But we don't know all of Barry's affairs. While frank and willing to answer questions, he was not impulsively communicative about his own doings."

"Then, Miss Holt," Demarest returned to his witness, "you were not with your father on the trip over to Newport?"

"No; father went in a small sailboat with Mr. Dan Wayne."

"And you all met at the luncheon party at Newport?"

"Yes; all Mr. Barry and Mr. Van Zandt. I was alarmed from the very first, for Barry, though he was very angry because I could not go with him, had said he would meet me at the Mannings' as soon as possible. Indeed, I thought he would be there when I arrived. But the others kept saying Barry would turn up soon, and for me not to worry. They said such a splendid yachtman as Barry couldn't have gone wrong in any way, and if the yacht were disabled or anything, he had a wireless. They also reminded me that there were scores of boats all around, and he would be looked after. How do you suppose they got him?"

"Who got him?"

"Why, the people who killed him."

"You think, then, some enemy came in a boat and killed him premeditatedly?"

"What else is there to think?"

CHAPTER V

"It is difficult to reconstruct the scene you suggest," Demarest said to Miss Holt. "But there was another man on board."

"You are not accusing Mr. Van Zandt?" cried Dan Wayne, in horror.

"Mr. Demarest is not accusing anybody," Fleming Stone said, a little sternly. "He is asking necessary questions, and there are a great many to be asked. Now that Mrs. Van Zandt is not present, will you tell me more about her? Were she and her husband a devoted couple?"

"By fits and starts," said Pat, as no one else answered. "I mean, sometimes they were all affection and devotion, and again they disagreed to the point of quarreling. That right, Dan?"

"Yes; but I think they meant the affection and the quarreling was an outburst of Vera's quick temper and Elkins' slow, even sluggish intellect. For he had intellect, of a high class, but he was slow-witted, and that irritated Vera, always. Now, I can't see a little man like Elkins attacking a big, burly chap like Barry, and getting away with it. But if he did do such a thing, the reason can be guessed at. Van Zandt had a strong streak of jealousy, and of late, Vera has been making up to Barry. I think she did it mostly to tease Jane."

"Yes, she did," broke in the girl; "Barry and I both saw it, and we were amused by it, that's all. It didn't really tease us, but it did tease Mr. Van Zandt. He was a funny little chap, and he thought every man who sees Vera falls in love with her. Some of them do. But, my heavens, he wouldn't kill Barry for that, and he couldn't have done so! To think of Elkins Van Zandt whacking Barry hard enough to kill him is too ridiculous!"

"Mrs. Van Zandt might feel glad to be rid of her husband," Demarest asked, candidly.

"Not she!" returned Dan Wayne. "Vera knows too well on which side her bread is buttered. She has lots of admirers, but few of them will seek to marry her. She's a cute little devil, but just about as extravagant as they come."

"Was her husband a rich man?"

"He was, before he married her," said Pat, dryly. "Not so much so since."

and gone away again, leaving no trace. I assume you know of no such person who wanted the death of either?"

Stone looked at Dan, but Jane spoke up in reply.

"Nobody could have wanted to kill Barry," she exclaimed, her cheeks red with indignation. "I know everything about his affairs; he always told me everything. Don't dream for a moment he was the principal target. Somebody wanted to kill Van, and did, and Barry, hearing Van call out, ran up the steps and was struck on the head by the murderer and fell back down the hatchway."

"Good construction, Miss Holt," and Stone looked at her with a little smile. "Now, if we can prove it. And have you any idea who this enemy of Mr. Van Zandt could be?"

"No, I haven't. Ask Vera, she ought to know."

"She has many admirers among the men?"

"Slathers of 'em. Poor Van had to accept the situation and like it. But he wouldn't kill any of 'em; he wasn't the killing sort."

"He looked around the group and his brother and the two Holts nodded their heads."

"It seems to me quite clear," Stone went on, "that neither of those men could have been the murderer. We have no hint of any third man—who may have come to the yacht, committed the crimes

"Vera has lots of admirers, but few of them will seek to marry her . . . She's a cute little devil, but just about as extravagant as they come."

acute indigestion. At least, a doctor could not have done so. Was a doctor summoned on these occasions?"

"No," Dan said, "I think not. Mrs. Mingle would take care of him with ordinary household remedies, and always brought him round."

"Have the Van Zandts been here long?"

"On this visit? About a month. They came the middle of August. 'They're your long-time friends'."

"Well, yes; we've known them about four or five years, eh, Pat? They turn up here once or twice every Summer, without waiting for an invitation. Lots of our friends do that."

"Your son liked Van Zandt?"

"Well, no, he didn't. Barry was annoyed when Jane wasn't allowed to go with him in the Mad Anthony, and he was annoyed when Van invited himself to go instead. But they started off chummily enough."

"About what time?"

"I don't know. Right after breakfast. About nine or ten, I suppose."

"Let me answer for a while," said Pat, noticing his brother's sad weariness. "Yes, Barry and Van started off about nine-thirty, saying they would go straight to Newport, leave the yacht at the club and be at the Mannings, where we were to gather before we were. The plan was for a large party of us to go out in the Mannings' big yacht, or in our own boats, see the race and be back for luncheon at two. Of course, if anyone didn't want to come back so early, that was all right, and when our men didn't show up, they all thought the Mad Anthony had followed the yachts away out and lost her way in the fog. But I didn't think that, because while Barry was daring enough for any escapade, he wanted to get back to where Jane was."

Fleming Stone looked round the group.

"I have never been faced by a more seemingly unsolvable problem than these two deaths," he said. "It is absurd to suspect either of the two men on the yacht of being the murderer. If Barry had killed Van Zandt and then gone down to start the engine, who killed Barry? And if, on the other hand, Van Zandt killed Barry, how could he expect to reach land himself? He could not sail a boat, I am told. If he killed himself by some poison not discovered at the autopsy, why choose that peculiar setting in which to stage his taking off? And if he killed Barry, down in the hold, where did he leave his weapon? Whatever it was, it was large and very heavy. Can you imagine that small, timid man, lugging a great weight down the stairs throwing it at his victim, who apparently put up no fight, and, picking up his unwieldy weapon, going up the stairs again, and sitting down in a chair to bring about his own death and achieving that very violent death of his victim, without getting the least particle of blood or any smear of dust or dirt on his own immaculate white flannels?"

"He could not have done it," Dan declared. "You didn't know Van Zandt, Mr. Stone. He was incapable of the deeds you describe. He had not the stamina, moral, mental, or physical, to put over such a deed. You all agree?"

He looked around the group and his brother and the two Holts nodded their heads.

"It seems to me quite clear," Stone went on, "that neither of those men could have been the murderer. We have no hint of any third man—who may have come to the yacht, committed the crimes hope to do so," Stone said. He did not like this siren-like beauty. Ladies with glittering topaz eyes always repelled him. Yet he must accept her as she was, must even cultivate her, for already it seemed to him she stood for a lot in this strange Wayne case.

"You have no further information for us," he went on, and to his surprise she answered, "Ah, but I have," and she gave him a sorrowful smile. "I have what you call a clue— isn't that it? Or do you say evidence?"

"It doesn't matter," Mrs. Van Zandt. Stone was getting annoyed at her. "Tell me what you have discovered."

"A letter! A terrible letter, that will lead you straight to the murderer."

"Very well," Stone said, making a show of but slight interest. "Give it to Mr. Demarest."

"I thought you had the case," she pouted a little, but handed the letter over to the federal attorney. Unfolding the sheet, Demarest read it aloud.

"Great Caesar, man! Don't think I'm intrigued by your wife, though she is a lovely woman. If I seemed to flirt with her last evening, it was just to rouse a spark of jealousy in the heart of the girl I am trying to win. Don't be silly; forget it."

"Do you know the writer of this?" Demarest asked her.

"No. It might have been one of several men. But I thought you detectives could find out from typing as well as handwriting who wrote a note."

Demarest had handed the note to Stone, who put it in his pocket, saying, "Thank you very much, Mrs. Van Zandt. It may prove a valuable clue."

A messenger from the coast guard station appeared just then with an important letter for Demarest. After reading it in silence, he said, "I have here important information. I do not propose to read this message aloud just now, but I will tell you its import. Mr. Van Zandt did not die from stomach ulcers. He was murdered."

This news sent Vera Van Zandt into fresh hysterics. As she began to rant, Demarest rose, beckoned Stone to follow him, and left the room. A houseman appeared and ushered them to a small reception room.

"Can I give you anything?" he asked.

"Only some information," Stone said, smiling a little. "Is Mrs. Van Zandt always so emotional?"

"Not always, sir, but when under sudden stress of trouble or excitement. She is a tempestuous lady."

"She is, indeed," Demarest said. "Now, I want you to leave Mr. Stone and myself in here, uninterrupted, for a time."

"Complicated case, eh?" Demarest said, with a puzzled frown after the door closed. "Ought to be one after your own heart."

"Looks like it," and Stone frowned, too. "Nothing much to take hold of yet, though."

"I want you to keep me informed of progress or of difficulties in which I can be of assistance," Demarest said. "Now I will tell you about the death of Van Zandt."

Dogs in Saanich

Declaring unmuzzled dogs were causing fear among children and adults in Saanich Municipality during the day, and doing damage to gardens and livestock at night, T. H. Butters, 901 Easter Road, announced last night that at a special meeting of Saanich Ward Two Non-Political Ratepayers' Association to be held next Wednesday night in Cloverdale School, he would introduce a resolution asking the Municipal Council to bring about necessary restrictions. The resolution reads:

"Resolved, that the Saanich Municipal Council be requested to amend regulations or by-laws regarding the keeping of dogs in Saanich Municipality so that no dogs of the undermentioned breeds, nor any part of said breeds, shall be allowed to run at large unless equipped with an effective muzzle, or on a leash, in the custody of a competent person. This is to apply to police dogs, German shepherds, Belgian shepherds, huskies, Great Danes, Alsatians and airedales, and all other breeds be similarly controlled between the hours of 9 p.m. and 7 a.m."

Freight and Charter Market of Coast Is Displaying Weakness

Fear That Differences Between American Tank Operators and Crews May Develop Into General Maritime Strike Is Responsible

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—The Pacific Coast freight and charter market for the month of March displayed considerable weakness in so far as chartering for the future is concerned, charterers preferring to confine their activities to more or less spot business.

Probably fear that the present differences between American tank steamer operators and their crews may spread and develop into a general maritime strike is what is causing owners and charterers alike to move cautiously in making charter commitments.

A resume of the various trades for the month of March follows:

GRAIN

Japan-China—No full cargo reported from United States ports in view of wheat prices being out of line. Some parcel business was fixed out of British Columbia to Japan at rates in the neighborhood of $2.30. China's wheat requirements are largely being supplied by Australia, however.

United Kingdom-Continued—No full cargoes reported for United States loading, although several vessels have been fixed from Vancouver to Europe at rates ranging in the neighborhood of 16s 6d.

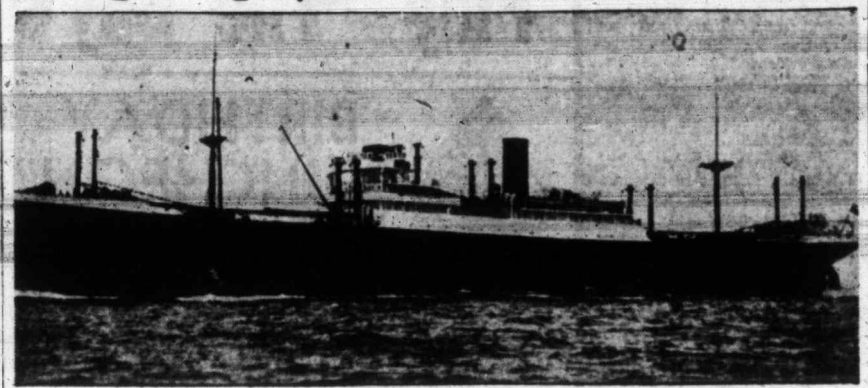

Intercoastal—One full cargo fixed for a handy-sized steamer on time charter basis, prompt loading. This business said to be the last of the old crop that will move to the east coast of the United States.

LUMBER

Japan—No full cargo charters reported. Liners are booking squares on the basis of $5.75 per thousand and logs on the basis of $8.25 per thousand. There is a tendency toward slight rate increases.

China—One or two vessels were reported fixed on lump-sum basis, Columbia River-Shanghai. Regular

Brought Eighty-Ton Vessel From Panama

Bringing in an eighty-ton motor vessel on her deck, the Royal Mail Line motorship Lochmonar, Captain H. P. Womersley, proceeded to Esquimalt Harbor yesterday morning, after she had discharged 250 tons of general cargo at Ogden Point Pier. The liner went alongside the facing of the Government Drydock at the naval port, where the heavy lifting crane of 125 tons capacity handled the little ship Canawaka without any trouble. The Lochmonar was inbound from United Kingdom ports via Panama and California, and had five passengers for Victoria aboard. The ship continued to the Mainland port during the afternoon, while the Canawaka was taken in tow for Vancouver by the tugboat Chief Skiuade after being placed in the water.

berth liners are quoting $6.00 on parcels.

Australia—One vessel reported fixed on lump-sum basis from British Columbia to Australia at a rate that will probably work out somewhere in the neighborhood of $7.00 to $7.50 per thousand feet.

Intercoastal—No full cargo charters announced and market remains steady at the $12 rate pegged by the conference.

United Kingdom-Continued—No full cargo charters reported from the United States or British Columbia, but no doubt many of the vessels fixed on lump-sum will take substantial parcels of lumber to make up their cargoes.

TIME CHARTER

Due to the constantly increasing price of bunker fuel oil, charterers have turned their attention to coal-burners for use in the trans-Pacific trade to the Orient. While the lumber-carrying capacity of a coal-burner cannot be compared with that of a motorship, nevertheless, due to the fact that coal-burners are obtainable anywhere from sixpence to a shilling less than motorships and good cheap coal is obtainable in the Orient, time charterers are finding it more economical to charter these coal-burning steamers.

TANKERS

The present strike of American tanker crews has resulted in an increased demand for foreign flag tankers to load California oils and at this writing there are few, if any, tankers available for April loading.

BIGGER SHIPS ARE PREDICTED

Canadian Pacific Steamship Executive Talks on Operating Problems

MONTREAL, April 4.—Prophecy that the size and speed of passenger liners will continue to increase, and that their size will be governed only by the capacity of the ports they serve, William Baird, steamship passenger traffic manager of the Canadian Pacific, outlined the problems of steamship operation and governmental ship subsidies.

"The word fear increasingly projects itself into our business," said Mr. Baird. "Not fear on the part of the ship owners, but fear and a lack of security on the part of political administrations." Governments throughout the world, stimulated by experiences in the Great War, fear that in another international conflict there would not be sufficient ships to convey troops, or to act as naval auxiliaries, or to maintain normal international trade intercourse in war.

A WORLD RACE

"Hence, there has commenced in recent years a world race of expenditure of the harassed taxpayers' money to build merchant vessels, and to operate them with Government financial aid in peaceful trading, in competition with privately owned ships. A stand has now been taken by the administration in Washington to try to regulate and control shipping subsidies, and one hopes that other governments will likewise see the wisdom of controlling the unhealthy situation created by unnecessary shipping subsidies."

Speaking of the Canadian Pacific Railway, Mr. Baird pointed out that on completion of its lines from Montreal to Vancouver, it had a population of only 4,500,000 in Canada to draw upon for traffic. Therefore, he said, in the early eighties, ocean as well as land responsibilities were taken on. Last year his company's ships steamed 1,390,306 miles, called at 118 ports throughout the world and consumed 315,355 tons of fuel oil and Diesel oil and 196,981 tons of coal.

SAW HISTORIC SPIKE DRIVEN

Witness of Railroad's Completion in Rockies Passes in Vancouver

VANCOUVER, April 4.—One of the very few surviving witnesses of that historic scene at Craigellachie, high in the British Columbia Selkirk, when Lord Strathcona drove the last spike of the Canadian Pacific Railway, November 7, 1885, Dugald "Duke" McKenzie, seventy-three, retired locomotive engineer of the Canadian Pacific, died here last night after a lengthy illness.

He started railway work as a boy in his native Toronto, fifty-eight years ago, and in 1882 joined the construction forces of the C.P.R. at Winnipeg as an engine driver. He followed the building of the line all the way from Winnipeg to Craigellachie, where he saw the last spike driven, and then came farther West to Vancouver, where he served from about 1887 until his retirement through failing health in 1921. During his later railroad days, he piloted the Canadian Pacific's crack passenger trains between here and North Bend.

Tall, angular, a shy talker with a ready smile, "Duke" McKenzie was one of Canada's best-known railway characters. He never failed to derive amusement from cock-sure statements of self-elected historians that the last spike in the Canadian Pacific transcontinental line was a golden one.

"It was the same as any other spike," he would declare forcefully. "What do they think we were building—a king's palace? I suppose they think we had caviar for lunch and breakfast served to us in bed."

"Duke" piloted a work train which brought ties, rails and other supplies up to Craigellachie when Lord Strathcona, in the company of Van Horne and other railway giants, drove the final spike. He had many little intimate and revealing stories to tell of this historic occasion, one of which concerned the manner in which souvenir hunters kept whittling away sections of the "last tie" to the consternation of a voluble Italian section foreman.

COLLISION CASE OVER

Decision Is Reserved Pending Submission of Memorandum by Counsel

VANCOUVER, April 4 (CP).—Decision was reserved in Admiralty Court today by Mr. Justice Martin in the corporation of West Vancouver's $50,000 damage suit against Canadian Pacific Railway Company. The action grew out of the collision two months ago between the Canadian Pacific steamer Princess Alice and West Vancouver Ferry No. 5 in First Narrows channel, when the ferry sank with the loss of one life. Mr. Justice Martin announced after counsel had submitted written memoranda in connection with certain controversial legal points involved.

REVIEW OF EVIDENCE
Today's hearing was given over to a review of evidence by counsel for defence and the plaintiff.

J. E. McMullen, K.C., appearing for the railway company, stressed evidence which had been given supporting the defence contention that the position of the Princess Alice when passing Brockton Point should have been a safe one for a ship's course, and that the vessel was under control of a competent crew, which prevented her from being carried to the north side of the channel, as the plaintiff contended.

W. M. Martin, K.C., counsel for West Vancouver, referred to the evidence of two Brockton Point signalmen and Chief Matthias Joe, of the Capilano Indian Reserve, who testified that, in their opinion, the Alice was on the north side of the channel, when the collision occurred.

Morro Castle Is Sold for $33,000; Cost $5,000,000

NEW YORK, April 4.—The bid of the Union Shipbuilding Company of Baltimore for the hull of the Morro Castle was accepted last week by the United States Army Engineers. The bid was $33,605. The vessel was built five years ago at a cost of $5,000,000. She was burned last September, off Asbury Park, and was beached there after 134 persons had lost their lives. The hull is to be broken up for scrap.

VAN DINE STORY IS AT DOMINION

Paul Lukas Characterizes Philo Vance in "The Casino Murder Mystery"

They've promoted, Ted Healy. Known best for his buffoonery and machine-gun patter, the popular comedian throws off his jester's role for one of the most important screen roles of his career.

This is the portrayal of Detective Sergeant Heath, the district attorney's chief investigator in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's production of S. S. Van Dine's newest murder mystery, "The Casino Murder Case," opening today at the Dominion Theatre.

As Sergeant Heath, Healy matches with the famous scientific detective, Philo Vance, characterized by Paul Lukas.

The new role further proves Healy's versatility in characterization. Within the last few months he has played a medicine man, a baseball player, a petty racketeer, a foil for William Powell and various other portrayals.

MINSTRELS OPEN AT EMPIRE TODAY

Smart Road Show Begins Two-Day Engagement—Lasses Brown and Tim Owsley Featured

Victoria is host today to a group of jolly-colored entertainers who are traveling under the well-known and much-respected name of "Georgia Minstrels" and will open their two-day local engagement at the Empire Theatre this afternoon, showing again this evening and tomorrow afternoon and evening.

It is several years since this company was in Victoria, but many families' faces were noticed in the troupe as they came off the boat from Vancouver. Old favorites and new stars should combine to give a really worth-while show. According to advance notices, the programme is a splendid one from beginning to end.

"KINGS OF COMEDY"

Down on the bill are Lasses Brown and Tim Owsley, who are known as the "Kings of Comedy." They top the stage acts. Much of the humor and the swing of the programme depends on these two past-masters in the art of making people laugh. Brown is regarded in the East as the leading colored comedian of the stage. He has had wide experience, having started his career in Mississippi and reaching Broadway before starting on the road.

DR. HARRY JOHNS

POPULAR Victoria soloist, who will sing the Count di Luna in the Philharmonic Society's presentation of Verdi's immortal opera at the Empress Hotel this evening before the Governor-General and Lady Bessborough and members of the viceregal party.

WILL ROGERS STARS IN LIVELY COMEDY

Picture-lovers who find Will Rogers' brand of humor irresistible—and this includes the entire screen public—are delighted with the news that his latest picture, "Life Begins at Forty," coming tomorrow to the Capitol Theatre, is crammed with fun.

Advance reports label this Fox Film, suggested by the Walter B. Pitkin book hit, a bang-up laugh riot. Critics say it easily eclipses previous Rogers' favorites, "Judge Priest," "David Harum" and "The County Chairman."

Rogers portrays a double-fisted, tender-hearted country editor who proves that the years after forty are the best and goes in quest of the fun-tain of youth.

COLUMBIA The greater part of a Los Angeles aquarium was transported to the First National studios for one sequence of "The Dragon Murder Case," the S. S. Van Dine thriller now at the Columbia Theatre.

Myriads of brightly-hued fish will be seen in the picture, which presents Warren William in the famous role of Philo Vance, detective extraordinary.

STARTLING OFFER BY HITLER COMING

The offers Hitler made Sir John contained four things:

1. Non-aggression.
2. Non-interference with internal affairs.
3. Non-assistance of any aggression.
4. Consultation among the powers in case any trouble should arise.

The pacts would be signed between individual countries but later could be assimilated into a general scheme.

OTHER OFFERS

Sir John also will take to Stress, two other Hitler offers, less clearly specified and, it is understood, not detailed on paper:

1. Willingness to sign an arms limitation treaty but, with the proviso that Germany be accorded full numerical equality with France or Great Britain, whichever is stronger on land and in the air.

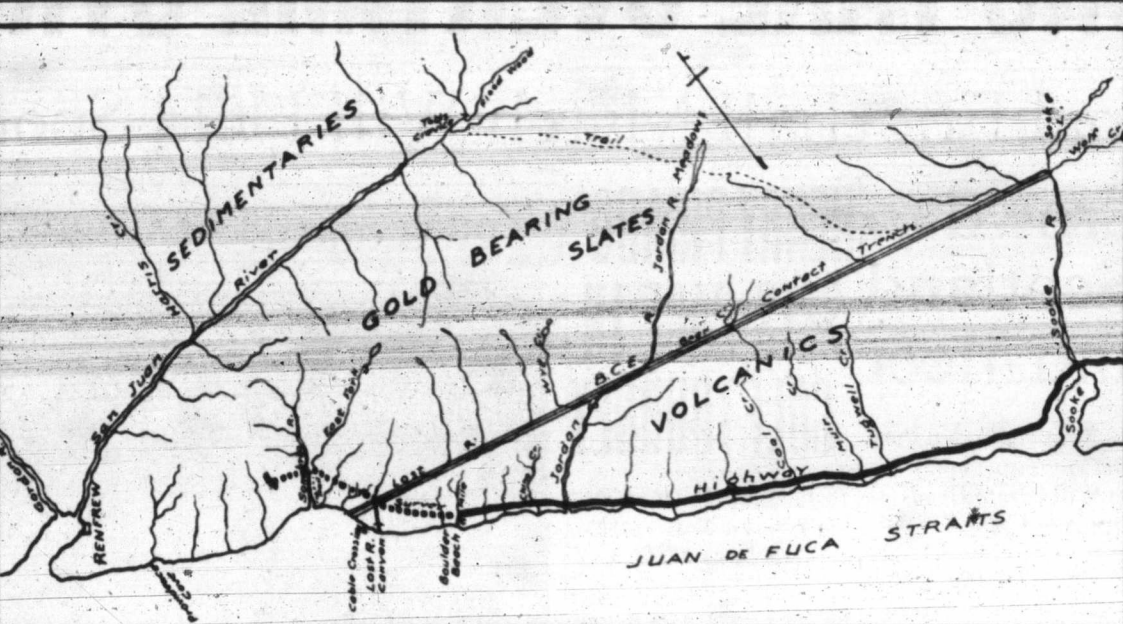

2. Willingness to sign a Danubian pact, non-interference with Austria is. The importance of this is minimized by official belief that a definition to satisfy cannot be found.

German officials say they will not sign any Danubian pact which does not force Premier Mussolini to withdraw his support from Austria at the same time that it prevents Germany from entering that country.

PEACE TOUR ENDED

PRAHA, Czechoslovakia, April 4 (AP)—Captain Anthony Eden ended his European peace tour here today with the message that, in this present world, "no nation can prosper on another's ruin."

Gold-Bearing Schists and Slates on Island

Sketch Map Showing Sooke-Victoria Areas

LYING between the Sooke-Victoria, Volcanics, that extend down the West Coast to the Sombrio River, and the Valley of the San Juan, there is a range of sedimentary rocks about six miles thick, declares R. They are tilted up at an angle of about eighty per cent; the strike is east and west, with a dip to the north.

After brief conversations with Czechoslovak statesmen, which an official communiqué said revealed "the identity of the political aims of their governments concerning the safeguarding of general peace," the British Lord Privy Seal left for London to report to the British Cabinet on his Moscow, Warsaw and Praha talks.

PLANS NOT RIPE

VIENNA, April 4 (AP).—The Austrian Government tonight studied plans for organization of its new and bigger army, announced yesterday, denying at the same time that its rearmament would be submitted to the Stresa Conference.

"What the Government has done so far is to commit itself definitely to a policy of rearmament. The Stresa Conference will not be asked to consider the question and it is not likely that a definite plan will be ripe for presentation to the signatory powers until after April 15."

WAITING FOR EDEN

LONDON, April 4.—A busy week faced the British Cabinet tonight as it awaited Captain Anthony Eden's return from his European peace tour to begin drafting compromise security proposals to be presented at Stresa next Thursday.

The young Lord Privy Seal, "indisposed" at Cologne, Germany, after his tiring trip to Berlin, Moscow, Warsaw and Praha, was expected to reach London tomorrow at midday and go into conference with part of the Cabinet shortly afterwards.

FRENCH INTENTIONS

PARIS, April 4 (AP).—French officials indicated today a renewed attempt would be made at the Stresa Conference to deter Germany's military ambitions by the presentation of a united front.

It was indicated also that the French would seek an outline of a pan-European treaty virtually pledging armed aid against any aggressor at Stresa next week.

Foreign Minister Pierre Laval is understood to have in mind a mutual assistance pact open to all nations of Europe, including Germany, to replace the eastern security pact Austro-German signed in 1933.

Flight of Plane Now Featured in News at Dominion

HEAVILY GUARDED tests of a new "mystery" plane by the United States are to be seen in the current issue of The Colonist Universal newsreel, now showing at the Dominion Theatre. Graham McNamee, noted radio announcer and the screen's talking reporter, vividly describes this and the other important events in the reel.

Three army pilots are tuning the craft for what is expected to be a blind flight from Oakland to Hawaii, the machine being guided only by a robot device and a radio beam.

Other important events to be seen in the current issue include the marching of youthful armies as Germany's decision to rearm brings panic to Continental capitals; Representative P. L. Gassaway, the cowboy Congressman, giving in a newsreel interview his opinion of Senator Long's "share-the-wealth" programme at Washington, D.C.

Little Stories for Bedtime

A Shadow Warns Peter

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

It's always best to keep in mind

The little things of life, you'll find

This is especially true with the little folks of the Green Forest and the little people of the Green Meadows. It is often the little things that make the difference between life and happiness and death and sorrow. So it is that they are always listening, not for big sounds, but for the snap of a little twig or the rustle of a leaf. And so it is that they are always watching for little movements in the grass or among the trees, and for other little things that you and I would not notice at all.

Now while Peter Rabbit often is most heedless, there are times when he is very cautious. As he went hopping and skipping along through the Green Forest toward the place where was the nest of Redtail the Hawk he felt quite free of fear or worry. But as he approached the tree in which was Redtail's nest a sudden feeling of doubt swept over him. He hadn't seen anything or heard anything to make him suspicious, yet suddenly, quite as if someone had whispered it in his ear, he felt that danger was near.

Peter stopped instantly and crouched perfectly still under a broad branch of a low-growing hemlock tree. There he sat as still as if he were a stone and all the time he was listening with all his might. Gentle Mistress Moon was high in the sky, and the moonbeams made patches of light and shadow all through the Green Forest. Peter heard nothing and saw nothing of which to be afraid, yet he couldn't rid himself of the feeling that danger of some kind was very near. What kind of danger it might be he hadn't the least idea, but until he could get rid of that feeling he wisely decided to stay where he was.

CAMPUS COMMENTS

A debate, "Resolved, that anti-war propaganda should be allowed to spread," was held at the last meeting of the Beta Delta Society. Morton Gold and George Smith up-held the affirmative, while L. Morgan and Clive Thomas supported the negative. The affirmative was given the decision by the judges.

An interesting debate will be held by this society this week, when the topic, "Resolved, that England should form an alliance with France and Italy to preserve the peace of Europe," will be debated. The affirmative will be taken by Marshall and Rose and the negative handled by McLennan and Morgan. It is expected all members will be at the meeting to hear this present-day topic debated.

Shamrocks senior basketball team played an exhibition game with Foster's Fur quintette on Friday, with the result that the invading team defeated the Shamrocks, 31 to 27. The game was not taken seriously by either team, and because of this, play was on the average ragged. Bill Wallis and Albert Kirkbride refereed. The teams followed:

Foster's—Smith (2), Rednap (2), Parrott (6), Renfrew (10), Jackson (4) and Speed (7).

Shamrocks—Andrews (11), McDonald (2), McAdams (2), Dix (6) and Elliott (6).

The girls' senior grass hockey eleven took school sports honors for the past week by its sterling 4-2 victory over the Oak Bay High girls in the second match of the May Tulley series. The game, which took place on the Victoria High School grounds on Friday, kept the spec-

There is no crossing over the Lost River, which is a large stream, except the old high cable near the beach. There is no land places along the coast, and the brush is too dense for men to get through with packs on their backs.

The West Coast Road is cleared and being graded as far as Eight-mile Creek at Boulder Beach, four miles from the head of the canyon on Lost River. If a horse trail could be put through this four miles, and a bridge thrown across the Lost River, at the head of the canyon, which can be done at a small cost, men could leave Victoria and land with supplies in one day.

That is the most favorable point to start exploration, both for lode and placer, and there is not more likely area in the whole of British Columbia to find the precious metal.

"Close prospecting is necessary in this locality owing to the nature of the ground, but this trail should be put through at once and prospectors given a chance to go forth and find," says Mr. Gallop.

On Wednesday, the Victoria High girls defeated a team from Victoria College, 3 to 2. This game with College was a good workout for the Victoria girls in preparation for their second series game. The third match, which will be played in the near future, will decide which institution will hold the May Tulley silverware for the remainder of the season. The shield is at present at the Victoria High School.

The Victoria High School boys' table tennis tournament will get under way shortly. Entries for this competition closed on Friday, and drawings will be made and the new match play posted. There are over forty contestants entered in the tournament. With regular table tennis workouts taking place during the past weeks, the players are in fine shape for the beginning of the championship play-off.

In preparation for the coming musical festival, Frank Tupman will hold girls' choir practices on Monday, Thursday and Friday mornings at 8:30. The girls are making splendid progress in choral singing, and it is hoped that they will be successful at the festival.

Junior basketballers started in their league on Friday when Nuggetts defeated Blacks, 19 to 7. P. Andrews and R. Malcolm refereed. The teams lined up as follows:

Nuggetts—Hughes, Ferguson, Neal, Berry, Jephson, Drummond-Hay, Finlayson and McArthur.

Blacks—Stevens, Hartley, Foster, Eaton, Fraser, Smith, Irving and Bernie.

Junior Rugby players will have to wait until the opening of the Rugby season next Fall to finish the junior league play. Because of the lateness of the season and the gradual dropping off of playing material, it was

International Football Match Will Hold Spotlight in Scotland Tomorrow

Monster Crowd to Witness Scotland And England Meet

Close to 120,000 Expected to Be at Hampden Park in Fixture Which May Decide Supremacy—Victory for Scottish Team Will Create Dead-lock—League Matches Are Carded

HUGH GALLACHER

GLASGOW, April 4 (CP).—The international soccer match between England and Scotland at Hampden Park holds the spotlight in the United Kingdom Saturday. Two evenly matched teams will battle before a crowd that is expected to number at least 120,000.

A victory for England will carry with it the international championship as the wearers of the rose have already two wins to their credit. If Scotland wins the two countries will be tied for the honors. Ireland and Wales are out of the running, each having lost two of the three games played.

Changes in accommodation arrangements have been made following protests two years ago when a large proportion of the 136,000 persons who passed through the turnstiles were unable to view the match. The authorities have decided to restrict the crowd to 120,000, although strictly on measurement the ground is calculated to accommodate 160,000. Ushers will be directed from the press-box by police officials using loud-speakers.

Railways will operate specials from all parts of the country and all available vehicles will be used to transport the crowds to the game.

The teams:

Scotland—Jackson (Chelsea), Anderson (Hearts), Cummings (Partick Thistle), Massie (Hearts), Simpson and Brown (Rangers), Napier (Celtic), Walker (Hearts), Gallacher (Derby County), McPhail (Rangers), Duncan (Derby County).

England—Hibbs (Birmingham), Male and Hapgood (Arsenal), Britton (Everton), Barker (Derby County), Alsford (Tottenham Hotspurs), Geldard (Everton), Bastin (Arsenal), Gurney (Sunderland), Westwood (Bolton Wanderers), Brook (Manchester City).

Only second division games are scheduled in Scottish League football Saturday, the first league games being given a rest in view of the international game.

GUNNERS FACE CHELSEA

LONDON, April 4 (CP).—Several football stars will be missing from the line-ups of Arsenal and Chelsea when they meet at Highbury, Saturday, in an English League fixture. Much depends upon the game, at least as far as the Gunners' championship aspirations are concerned, and they can ill afford to lose.

Sunderland, with a game in hand, is pressing closely on Arsenal's heels in the race for the leadership. Only three points divide the teams, the Londoners being ahead with forty-eight.

International demands and injuries will result in the Arsenal team being made up largely of reserves. Male, Hapgood and Bastin will play for England against Scotland at Glasgow. On the injured list are Moss, versatile goalkeeper, and Coppin, left-half of the team. Jackson, Chelsea's goalkeeper, is also doing international duty and Allum, the Pensioners' left-half, is a doubtful starter.

Sunderland plays West Bromwich Albion at the Hawthorns and Tottenham Hotspur visit Sheffield Wednesday. The Spurs, fighting to retain a place in the first division, will be without Alsford, who is playing in the international at Glasgow.

WANDERERS TRAVEL

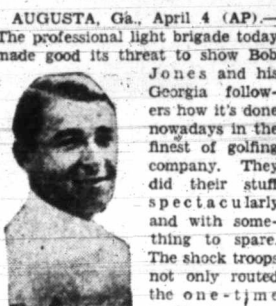

Bolton Wanderers make the long trip to Plymouth in an effort to regain the leadership. Brentford, the leaders, are at home to Swansea Town.

Charlton Athletic, leaders of the Southern section of the third division, play at Bournemouth. Chester, leading the Northern section, will meet Barrow.

Aberdeen, Scotland, has just installed its first automatic telephone.

HENRY PICARD SETS PACE IN GOLF TOURNEY

Youthful Pro Assumes Lead in Augusta Meet—Jones Returns a 74

GENE SARAZEN

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 4 (AP).—The professional light brigade today made good its threat to show Bob Jones and his Georgia followers how it's done nowadays in the finest of golfing company. They did their stuff spectacularly and with something to spare. The shock troops not only routed the one-time world champion, but also the outlet of their second annual joust over the Augusta countryside, but delivered a record-breaking attack on the bunkered battleground that the great Jones helped design.

Jones, no longer the golfing machine of his championship days, struggled to score 74. He was two over par and seven full strokes behind the dazzling pace set by the tall, youthful Henry G. Picard, of Hershey, Pa.

Picard's 33-34-67 was the climax of a record beginning for the second annual $5,000 invitation tournament of the Augusta National Golf Club. It was five under par, two shots below the competitive course record, but only good enough to give him a one-shot margin over his nearest three pursuers at the end of the first eighteen-hole round of the seventy-two-hole medal play competition.

Miss Peterson Wins

DUNCAN, April 4.—Miss D. Peterson was winner of the women's monthly medal competition at the Cowichan Golf Club, Wednesday afternoon, with a gross 99, handicap 19, net 80. Mrs. W. Prest was second with 134-31-103. Others competing were Miss I. Clark, Miss A. Powell, Mrs. F. G. Aldersey, Mrs. F. H. Price, Miss G. Beaver, Miss M. Wynne, Mrs. Boyd Wallis and Mrs. J. Longbourne.

Baer Is Offered Big Sum to Meet Maxie Schmeling

NEW YORK, April 4 (CP).—An offer of $25,000 for Max Baer, heavyweight boxing champion, to meet Max Schmeling, German contender, at Wembley Stadium during the King's Jubilee celebration next summer will be preferred the Californian when he arrives here tomorrow by Armand Vincent, Montreal promoter.

With the signing yesterday of Ted Christie, rugged Californian, and Herman Oakes, Philadelphia, for the five eight-minute rounds semi-windup, Promoter Fred Richardson has completed his all-heavyweight squirm card for tomorrow evening at the Tillicum gymnasium.

JUBILEE PENNIES

DONCASTER, England.—In their King's Jubilee celebrations the Doncaster Corporation will give a new penny to each child, to cost $5,000, besides a cup of tea for each.

TOMORROW'S SQUIRM CARD IS COMPLETE

Four Leading Heavyweights Will Appear at Tillicum Gymnasium

With the signing yesterday of Ted Christie, rugged Californian, and Herman Oakes, Philadelphia, for the five eight-minute rounds semi-windup, Promoter Fred Richardson has completed his all-heavyweight squirm card for tomorrow evening at the Tillicum gymnasium. In the top spot will be the colorful and agile Count George Zarynoff, Ukrainian exponent of the bone-bending game, and Mike Strelch, Boston. A local preliminary will open the show at 8:30 o'clock.

The husky mat stars will be making their debut in the Victoria ring, in the first heavyweight programme presented here for many seasons. All of the men are topnotchers in the wrestling game and their appearance here is creating considerable interest.

Count George Zarynoff, often spoken of as the Ukrainian wrestling ambassador, is reported to be exceptionally fast, despite the fact that he weighs more than 200 pounds. Veteran of the squared circle, and boasting of victories over many of the mat game's leading men, Zarynoff will be favored to take the measure of the crafty and rugged Mike Strelch. The bout is scheduled for eight ten-minute rounds.

Ted Christie, according to advance reports, is another of the grunt and groan experts who delights in using rough tactics. The Californian sets a fast pace from the very first minute he enters the ring and never stops. Philadelphian, is another of the younger mat men who is making good progress in his chosen profession, and today ranks close to the leaders in the heavyweight division.

With four new faces on the card, officials of the Tillicum Athletic Club anticipate another good crowd tomorrow evening.

CUP FOOTBALL GAMES BILLED AT ENCLOSURE

West to Meet Esquimalt in Province Series—Cubs Play Up-Island Eleven

Cup-tie soccer will hold sway here tomorrow, with two fixtures billed at the Royal Athletic Park in the form of a double-header. Appearing in the curtain-raiser will be Victoria West and Esquimalt, first division eleven, battling in the local final of the Province Cup series. The kick-off is set for 2:15 o'clock, with Robb as referee.

The second attraction on the double bill will be an inter-city affair, with the visiting South Wellington team opposing Victoria West. The semi-final of the British Columbia juvenile championship, Dave McMillan has been named as referee and the kick-off is arranged for 4 o'clock.

Victoria West advanced to the final by reason of their 2-1 victory over Victoria City, while Esquimalt eked out a 4-3 win over the Saanich Thistles in an overtime match.

WINNER MEETS NANAIMO

Both squads will trot out their strongest line-ups for the match, as the winner will enter the competition proper against Nanaimo here, possibly next Saturday.

With rival clubs fielding their best squads, the match should be productive of plenty of good soccer and should be keenly contested. Several ardent Victoria West supporters are picking their favorites to defeat the lads from the dockyard village and gain the competition proper, but on the other hand, there are plenty of staunch Esquimalt followers who can see nothing but a win for their boys.

Lower Island champions, the Victoria West Cubs, will be facing stiff opposition when they take the field against the Up-Islanders. Well known for the many smart teams they have turned out in the past, South Wellington is reported to have one of the fastest and best juvenile teams to come from the northern end of the Island for many a day.

Sponsored by the Victoria West football club, the Cubs are a well-balanced and clever aggregation of young soccer players. Their showing in the Royal Juvenile Athletic Association Football League has been impressive, while in the local play-offs they marched through to the Lower Island championship.

win the first game, the Leafs will go into the second contest here Saturday night no better than even money on the game and certainly no better than even money on the series. The third and, if necessary, the fourth, will be played in Montreal.

FIRST PERIOD

Kelly, whose two goals hoisted Boston Bruins from the league finals last Saturday night, fired the first Toronto shot after circling Wentworth. It was not dead-on. Maroons paid strict attention to checking and the Leafs failed to get anywhere until the lines changed and Charlie Conacher raced in after taking Printemps's pass. The big winger missed the puck completely when he tried to shoot.

Lionel Conacher leaned heavily on Bill Hollett when the Cape Breton ace tried to shake his way through Montreal's defence. A minute later Hollett made a great end-to-end dash, beating the big train cold. Connell blocked his backhand shot and also turned back Hec Kilrea's smash at the rebound.

Allan Shields was banished for tumbling Kelly over his knee. The Leafs threw out five forwards.

Swinging along the boards, Dave Trotter received a stiff thumping from Red Horner. He turned quickly and bumped into Kilrea. The second bump did not suit Referee Bell, who penalized both Kilrea and Trotter.

SECOND PERIOD

Ward made a brilliant play before getting a pass away to Northcott, and only an offside whistle prevented Baldy from going right in on Hainsworth.

Maroon batteries started to crackle ominously when Evans broke away and crowded through the Toronto defence. His back-hand shot made Hainsworth stretch to save. Then the Maroons surged in more confidently. After a face-off beside the goal they scored. Blinco slipped the puck back to Robinson who took two short strides, poised and blasted a high shot from fifteen feet that the Leafs' goalie did not see.

HEAVY BODY CHECKS

Ward flattened Horner with a mighty hip and the big red head got it all back by sloughing both Ward and Hooley Smith. Maroons kept pumping their shots from long range. Charlie Conacher's stick caught Northcott across the back of the neck, but Baldy's protest did not bring a penalty.

The next item was a nifty shoulder rub by Trotter that hurtled Finnigan into the boards. "Boil" dumped Robinson, and Jackson and Shields both went down when they collided. It was a period of punishment.

NETTED GOAL THAT BEAT TORONTO

Hooley slipped in close again, faking a pass to Northcott, but this time the shot was wide. The red team kept pressing. Trotter accomplished the winning stroke on Robinson's pass at the 5:28 mark.

Eleven-Year-Old Solo Flyer—A few months ago Young Roscoe Brinton, sixteen, of Pittsfield, Mass., received his student pilot's licence, a document he had waited five years to obtain after he had soloed his plane. Under the tutelage of his father and the late Lowell Bayles, a former holder of the world's speed record for land planes, Roscoe flew a plane alone at the tender age of eleven. At that time he hoped to obtain his licence with no trouble at all, but a regulation of 1931 grounded him until he reached the age of sixteen. After finishing high school, Roscoe hopes to attain fame and fortune via aviation, and we wish him "Happy Landings."

Eighty-two Conflagrations in One Factory—On June 26, 1932, fire finally laid waste to the Stowers Packing Co. factory in Scranton, Pennsylvania, and it might be said that the gods of fire had well earned their place. Since the night of May 30, 1932, when flames first seared the interior of the building, the shrill wail of the fire sirens had become familiar music to the residents nearby. In that year the Stowers plant had two more fires, in 1927 only one, in 1928 five, in 1929 eighteen, in 1930 another single fire, in 1931 thirty fires. In 1932 the fire department responded twenty-four times before the structure was finally destroyed. Officials of the fire fighting forces believed that most of the Stowers Co.'s eighty-two fires were of incendiary origin.

RIBBONS AND KELOWNA READY FOR FIRST GAME

Local Cagers Are Strong Favorites To Beat Visitors

Victorians in Great Condition for Opening Clash of Two-Game Series for Right to Represent Province in Western Final Tonight—Kelowna Arrives at Full Strength

Happy over their double triumph over University of British Columbia, the first on the court and the second at a protest meeting, Blue Ribbons will train their big guns on Kelowna's Famous Players at the High School Gymnasium tonight in the first of a two-game total-point series for the right to represent British Columbia in the Western Canada basketball final.

The same two quintettes will meet again tomorrow evening on the same floor and then the survivors will mark time, waiting for the result of the Raymond Union-Jacks-Winnipeg Toilers series.

Posters Fur and Beavers will clash in the preliminary fixture, commencing at 7:30, and then the main attraction is expected to start about an hour later. The announcement was made last night that the Ribbons-Kelowna series will be broadcast over CPCT, starting at 8:45, with Ross "Bud" Hocking at the mike. Saturday's tussle will also go over the air. With all the reserve seats already sold, capacity crowds are almost a certainty for both evenings.

ARE CONFIDENT

Gunning for their second Canadian championship in the past three seasons, the Ribbons will take no chances with the Interior lads and will step on the gas from the opening bell for they know it's points that count in this series and not games. The tea and coffee merchants are confident of hurdling Kelowna to reach the Western final, but to do this they must get in there and display the same teamwork and fighting spirit they did in the Varsity series.

After two stiff workouts this week under the watchful eyes of Manager J. A. Barnwell and Trainer Dave Nicol the Ribbons are reported to be in great shape and are eagerly waiting for the whistle. Chuck Chapman and Doug Peden will open on the regular back division, while Art Chapman will do the jumping, flanked by Albert "Red" Martin and "Porky" Andrews. Joe Ross, Johnny Craig, Bill Wallis and Alex McKeachie are the substitutes.

Kelowna arrived in the city yesterday and went through a good workout at the scene of the battle. All the squad reached town with the exception of Harold "Pi" Campbell, captain and clever-working guard. Campbell will be here today and will be in the starting line-up when the squad steps on the court.

VISITING SQUAD

ACE player of the University of British Columbia for several seasons, Campbell is rated as one of the finest guards and scoring men in the province. He played with Varsity the year they lifted the Dominion crown. He is six feet tall and weighs 170 pounds. Another well-known basketball here with the invaders is Tommy Forbes, who performed with the Ribbons last year. Forbes will be appearing with

Japanese Pros Will Not Show On Local Links

WORD was received yesterday from Walter Pursey, Seattle professional, by Phil Taylor, pro at the Victoria Golf Club, to the effect that the touring Japanese professionals will not play in the Capital City, as previously announced some time ago. The visitors were supposed to show in Vancouver and here, but both matches have been wiped off the programme. Seattle and Portland are the only cities in the Northwest who will have the opportunity of seeing the Japanese in action. Pursey received word from Bob Harlow, secretary of the Professional Golfers' Association of America, who has the Japanese under contract, that it would be impossible to play in the two Canadian cities.

Campbell on the defence and his marksmanship against his former teammates will be closely watched. Playing centre for the visitors will be Cook Ryan, who is six feet two inches and tips the scales at 187 pounds. Ryan is said to be the playmaker of the squad, so he will be carefully guarded during the forty minutes. Ken Griffiths, George McKay, Charlie and Harold Pettman are the other forwards.

SERIES DELAYED

VANCOUVER, April 4 (CP).—Secretary Ken Walton, of the British Columbia Basketball Association, announced tonight he had received word that Raymond, Alta., had been quarantined for scarlet fever and that the Raymond Union-Jacks would be unable to meet the Winnipeg Toilers in the Western Canada final next week.

Walton said he had been informed by Manager Woolf, of the Union Jacks, that the Southern Alberta city would not be allowed to hold public gatherings until April 15. The Raymond Toilers two-out-of-three series is scheduled at Raymond April 8, 9 and 10.

The British Columbia secretary added that he had wired the Canadian Basketball Association representative at Lethbridge asking him to get in touch with Raymond on the possibility of moving the Union Jacks to either Lethbridge or Calgary for the Winnipeg series. If this can not be arranged Walton said the Toilers would be brought straight to the Coast to meet the winners of the Victoria Blue Rib-

Walton said that the Eastern champions would be declared by April 17 and ready to move into the Canadian final, and that in view of this it would not be possible to hold the Winnipeg-Union Jacks series over until the quarantine was lifted.

Remember When

(Twenty-Five Years Ago)

The long-expected soccer match between a representative service team and the strongest eleven from Victoria boasts and should, when meeting, put up an exhibition second to none of the season, not excepting the famous engagement between the North Ward second divisioners and Victoria West. Secondly, the proceeds are to be devoted to a worthy cause. The Oak Bay grounds are being secured free of charge and all the money taken in at the gate will be handed to Mrs. Williams, the widow of a city employee, who was shot while blasting on Fort Street some months ago.

There are two reasons why the fans should turn out in full force. Firstly, the teams are the finest of which Victoria boasts and should, when meeting, put up an exhibition second to none of the season, not excepting the famous engagement between the North Ward second divisioners and Victoria West. Secondly, the proceeds are to be devoted to a worthy cause. The Oak Bay grounds are being secured free of charge and all the money taken in at the gate will be handed to Mrs. Williams, the widow of a city employee, who was shot while blasting on Fort Street some months ago.

Jumpers, sprinters and athletes of the public schools are now looking forward to the annual meeting of the schools in the Empire Day track meet. Already it is reported from the different schools that the boys are beginning to train for the various events and all express confidence of making the best fight ever for the challenge cup.

Lester Patrick Will Search for Material

Boss of New York Rangers Will Witness Allan Cup Final With Hopes of Picking Up Playing Strength for Next Season's Race

By GEORGE MAGUIRE
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LESTER PATRICK
The head of New York Rangers fiddled around his desk all day yesterday trying to clean up details connected with the National Hockey League campaign that ended Saturday for his club, then with a true boyish gesture cleared his desk of everything with one energetic swipe and rushed for the Boston train.

Patrick hopes to get a line on several amateurs performing in the Canadian championship series and who are reported "hot" for big time company.

The glaring hole in the Ranger rear guard must be filled before next season rolls around, Lester admitted, and he has hopes the player to do it will be found at Halifax.

Joe Cooper, husky Winnipeg defenceman, who played for Brooklyn Hamilton-Crestcents this season, will be given a tryout with the Rangers next year, as will Neil and MacGillivray, forwards, and Bert Gardner, goalkeeper, all of Edmonton, and Alex Shibley, forward, of Winnipeg.

TO HAVE FARM

With the hope of having a farm club in the International circuit next season, Patrick plans negotiating with some dozen or so other Canadian amateurs. These will report to the training school at Winnipeg next fall. Those who don't make the major league team will likely find a farm club berth.

The whole team has left town but Murray Murdoch, who works this summer for Madison Square Garden.

Fred "Bun" Cook and Brother Bill made their exit just in time for Bun to miss a suit filed in court by Peggy Rich, actress, charging injuries she suffered when Bun's stick struck her head during a game at the Garden, "greatly impaired her earning power."

Originally Miss Rich sued the Garden corporation for $50,000 damage, but lost the suit. She is now suing Bun but as he has already crossed the border and picked up his bond, guaranteeing his return to Canada within six months, local hockey circles feel there is little the court or Miss Rich can do about the case in the near future.

"BEAUTY IS SKIN DEEP" Literally skin-deep means a wound penetrating no deeper than the epidermis. In its general application, however, the word usually makes its appearance in the proverbial half-truth beauty is skin-deep.

This limitation of pulchritude has been in the English language for a number of centuries.

As long ago as 1613 we find one of the characters in "A Wife" by Overbury, complaining "All the carnal beauty of my wife is skin-deep." In "Gentle Shepherd," by Ramsay, published in 1725, we find the aphorism: "Beauty that is only skin-deep must fade like the gowans (flowers?) of May."

Perhaps the most cheerful, charitable and optimistic point of view is expressed by Spencer in his Essays (on Personal Beauty), published in 1854:

"The saying that beauty is but skin-deep is but a skin-deep saying."

Autos to Be Used On Business Only
Saanich Decides
Alleged "joy-riding" of Saanich municipal employees in municipally owned cars must stop, the council decided last night.
In a resolution by Councillors E. C. Warren and A. G. Lambriek, which passed unanimously, the council ruled cars must not be used, at any time, except on official business.
Councillor Lambriek took exception to an alleged "joy-ride" by a municipal employee to Mount Douglas Park recently. Councillor Warren declared that he had never seen cars used other than for municipal business, but he had heard of instances of this practice.
LONDON—Seymour Hicks, well-known English actor, is taking over the Victoria Palace, where he will revive such classics as "The School for Scandal" and "She Stoops to Conquer," appearing himself in each production.
